Do you always want to enjoy great travel at low cost? You do not want your journeys stretched on trains, cars? A cheap airline ticket will be a good start for upcoming trips and contribute to your vacation more meaningful.

Today airplanes are a very fast and convenient means of transportation for us whenever we have business trips, travel . or go far.

Today thanks to the modern technological means and the aviation industry is also developing constantly will help you have the advantages when flying, especially "hunting" a cheap airline ticket is nothing great than. With a few excellent techniques and experience to be able to "hunt" cheap flights of airlines around the world below, hope to help you find a ticket like the best.

1. What if the emergency exit door is open while flying?
2. Baggage regulations when traveling by airlines

1. A computer and a high-speed connection

With the explosion of information and technology today, to find a cheap airline ticket is very simple, you do not need to go far, or take time to the ticket office. All you need is a fast-connected computer and finding tickets only.

Normally, when making promotions, the goods will not normally upload their website directly, so use the search tool to go to those websites to find out about promotion information.

In addition, the website of the online newspaper, the ad on facebook is also very developed and has lots of promotional information that you can refer to more easily.

Equally important is that you have to be quick to get a ticket because there are certainly dozens of people who will scold you to book tickets like you. Use good browsers like Firefox, Google Chrome, . to access. If the company's website is overloaded, you cannot enter, do not be discouraged, please continue F5, open multiple browsers to be able to "surround" all sides.

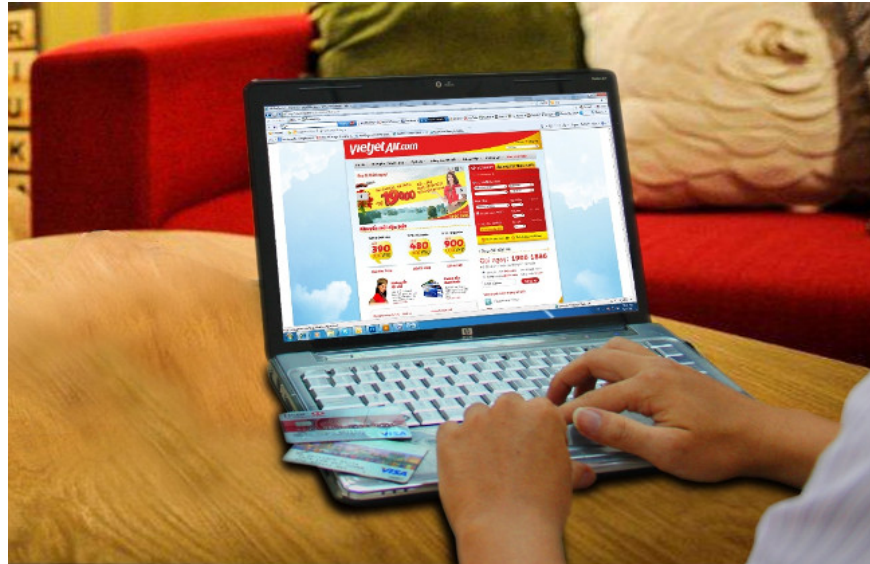

Besides, another trick for you is that all airline ticketing websites of all airlines have a registration to receive information and register as members, so any cell phone You can also register and receive email messages with the easiest promotional information without worrying about missing out on any promotions.

2. Always have an international payment card in your wallet

If you book domestic flights, the payment is very simple, you only need an inland ATM card, after completing the flight registration procedure, you only need to print the invoice and go to the ticket offices directly. , agent to pay, receive booking code. But for foreign airlines, you cannot pay with regular ATM cards but we need to pay by international credit cards such as Visa, Master . This is also a necessary condition if we Want to apply for promotional ticket payment. Always carry a valid international payment card to ensure you don't miss the golden opportunity from VietJetAir. Visa Debit and Master Debit cards now register extremely fast and simple in banks, but "stylish" when having this card in your wallet, right?

3. Choose flexible fares

In order to get cheap airline tickets, you should book tickets as soon as possible, and if you book late and close to the date of departure, the fare is still cheap but not the cheapest. If you are traveling with a group of friends who cannot quickly book the cheapest fare, don't be disappointed. A member of an online travel forum shared: "Suppose I have a group of 4 people from Hanoi to Bangkok. If I quickly set up when the promotion is launched, I can buy all 4 tickets. super cheap, for example 15 USD / way / person, 4 people is 60 USD But near the end I just bought (put 4 passengers at once), the ticket price is 40 USD / person, 4 people is 160 USD.

4. Select the appropriate departure date

If your family wants to enjoy a summer vacation, it is best to "hunt" tickets at least 3 months in advance.

When you want to book cheap tickets, you should keep in mind that you should not book on weekends like (Friday, Saturday and Sunday). In addition, night cruising is usually cheaper than daytime, so you should also pay attention to the time, the time zone difference when flying internationally to make a reasonable choice. It is also necessary to have a backup date if the low-cost tickets are exhausted in the original scheduled date.

5. Some minor notes when booking airline tickets:

1. Cheap airplanes are often uncomfortable, but they must ensure safety standards, so be prepared to mentally not be a "VIP guest" when boarding the plane.
2. If someone is familiar with aviation, keep in good and regular contact with them. They will tell you about promotions as well as a few ways to get the fastest cheap ticket.
3. Most cheap tickets usually do not include taxes, checked baggage. Therefore, you should calculate carefully before ordering.
4. Passenger names must be inscribed in Vietnamese without special characters such as @, .
5. Often cheap tickets are not accompanied by meals, often late, so remember to fully charge before the flight.
6. When you get an error: don't worry too much, calmly review the error message from the system for a timely processing. If the error message is busy because many people access, exit and return in 1 minute.
7. Payment error: When the system returns a card payment error or refusal, you may have operated the declaration incorrectly at any stage so the security system has prevented or your card has problems. . Before buying a ticket again, you need to review the mailbox to see if the email has been sent, or visit the member page to see if the reservation is available.
8. Check the results: if the booking is successful, you can view the booking information in the following way:
 1. A successful booking information is available on the website with the details attached
 2. Tickets sent to your email
 3. The booking number is displayed in the member page when you log in. Booking code is a 7-digit string.
