Experience using the Sony MDR-ZX310AP headset

The first impression is about the design, the Sony MDR-ZX310AP music headset brings a modern, youthful beauty with many colors to choose from. Anyone who carries this headphone exudes a sense of luxury and personality.

Concentric circles catch beautiful light.

Because the mainstream design of the Sony MDR-ZX310AP is plastic, for those who wear earphones for the first time it feels a bit painful and hot when worn for a long time, but if worn, the Sony MDR-ZX310AP gives one Very comfortable feeling. Not just Sony MDR-ZX310AP, this is probably the common drawback of on-ear headphones.

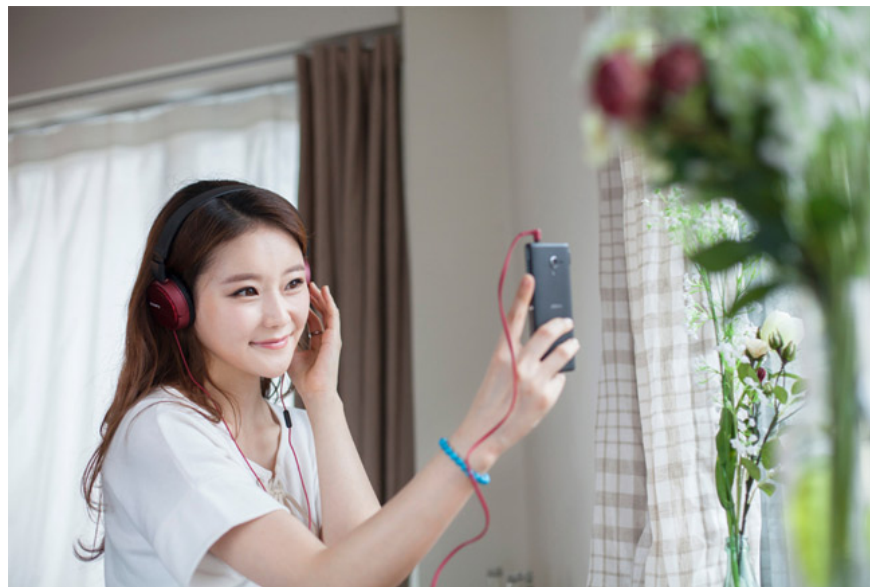

To test the sound insulation of Sony MDR-ZX310AP, I tried to listen in an environment with lots of noise, and found that his sound insulation is quite good, although the sound escapes relatively, but the experience shows no harm. too much influence.

Sony MDR-ZX310AP has a closed design so the sound insulation is very good.

Good material, good design and eye-catching, how about sound quality? It can be said that in the segment of headphones under 1 million Sony MDR-ZX310AP will take the throne as the king of pop music. This headset has an impressive bass band, powerful and deep bass, and fast bass playback speed of Sony. To get a better understanding, I tried EDM tracks and indeed the Sony MDR-ZX310AP did not disappoint me, the climax was also the time when the Sony MDR-ZX310AP headset fully utilized its power to give Users can "burn out" and "adventure" according to the notes.

Enjoy a lively music party with Sony MDR-ZX310AP.

As a first-class bass headset, I don't appreciate the mid range of Sony MDR-ZX310AP. Frustrated about the mid range, but in exchange for the trable range and soundstage of the Sony MDR-ZX310AP, it is quite, at a moderate level to help the melody be emitted honestly and vividly.
