Going deep inside, follow the stairs to climb on the top of the mountain and then downhill slowly along the available path, lift the "blacksmith" of the trees, you will feel a different world full of magic, everything all are real but its beauty makes people feel fantasy. A circular water area with a diameter of about 100m bears a strange blue color. The steep cliffs, many monstrous shapes enveloping around, dense vegetation falling on the water make the space more mysterious. Sunlight passes through the cliffs, shining through the leaves, reflecting on the lake surface creating a vague light.
