

Eyes with the picture that destroyed 105 tons of ivory in Kenya - a clear message

The Kenyan government burned 150 smuggled ivory, seized right at Nairobi National Park, with a clear message to smuggled ivory hunters.

The Kenyan government burned 150 tons of ivory and a series of statues of royal emperors, stallions made of ivory that were captured at Nairobi National Park with a clear message to the professionals. Smuggled ivory hunting.

1. Nairobi National Park suddenly turned into hell when 105 tons of ivory sunk into the sea of ??fire.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

2. President Ali Bongo Ondimba Gabon answers questions from journalists in the event of burning 105 tons of captured ivory.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

3. An ivory statue (on the right) is on top of an ivory pile burned down in flames and black smoke.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

4. Many firefighters are also at the scene to make sure everything is safe when the event takes place.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

5. Rangers are also at the scene to protect the burned ivory.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

6. Clusters of ivory stacks begin to appear first smoke smoke.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

7. A worker is arranging the ivory that is about to burn.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

8. The Maasai tribe people are also present at this important event.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

9. A series of statues of royal kings, war horses made of ivory were also destroyed and captured by smugglers.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

10. International animal conservationists carry panels and banners with the words 'WorthMoreAlive' bearing a message calling for an end to ivory hunting in Kenya in particular and the world in general.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

11. Panorama of 11 ivory clusters with a total volume of more than 105 tons is about to be "fired".(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

12. Police ranger of ivory on iron rig to prepare for incineration.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

13. A number of local volunteers also joined hands to carry the ivory from the container to the scene of the destruction.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

14. The process of ivory preparation is strictly controlled and carefully monitored from the Kenyan Government agency.(Image source: Carl de Souza / AFP /).

Huynh Dung ( According to Theguardian)

You finished reading the article "Eyes with the picture that destroyed 105 tons of ivory in Kenya - a clear message" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.