Jack Ma is known as the second richest Asian billionaire, who holds a large fortune and is the owner of Alibaba Group.

With his hefty fortune, Jack Ma has just spent $ 154 million, equivalent to VND 3,500 billion, to own a beautiful area like the first place.

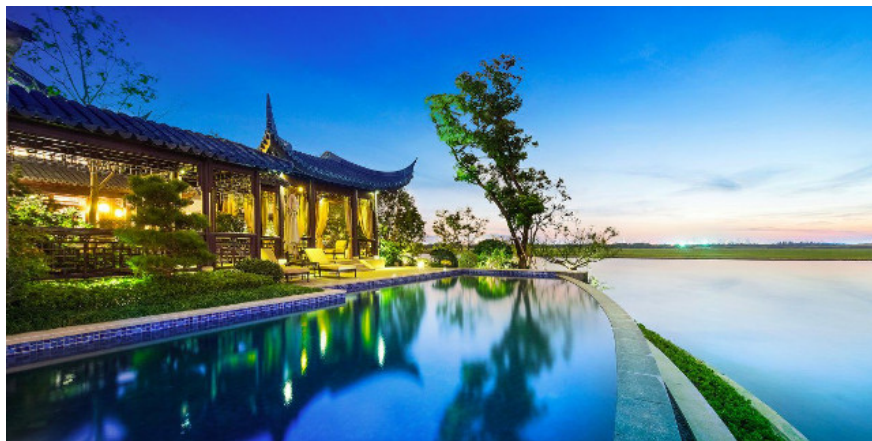

This residential area is located in the heart of Suzhou city, China with 32 bedrooms, 32 bathrooms, surrounded by many lakes, swimming pools and wine cellars . Especially, this place is built according to the ant Ancient architecture, feudal nobility, only in ancient ancient movies, is very suitable for Jack Ma's style. Here, Chinese people often call this place "Dao hoa vien" because it is no different from the "fairyland" scene in the legend.

This area of ??Jack Ma covers an area of ??about 1,663 acres, surrounded by Dushu Lake. This is a real estate area built by the famous group Luc Thanh.

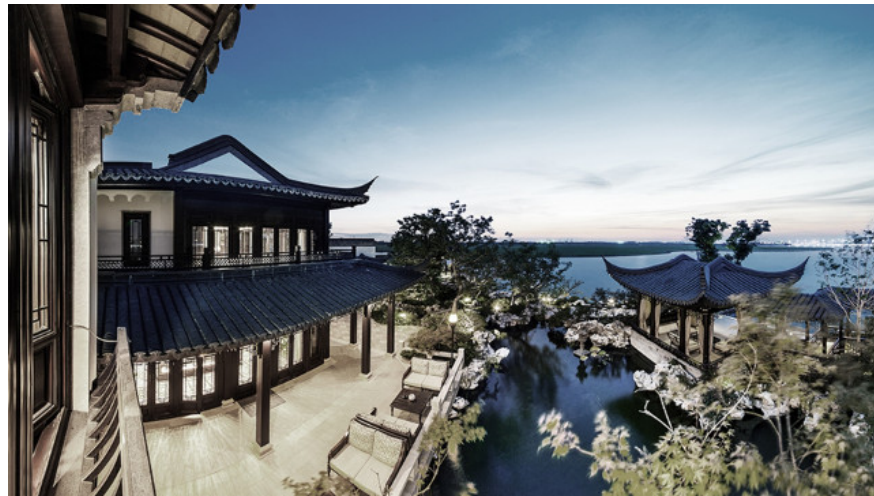

The living room is designed to bring a touch between modern and traditional Chinese giving us a majestic and overwhelming view.

All rooms in this exclusive area were built by Jack Ma to the north to catch the sun in the dawn. Residential areas are connected by open bridges, surrounded by gardens or fish ponds.

To build and decorate this magnificent apartment, Jack Ma takes 3 years to complete. With a lot of enthusiasm to place in the islands, fish farming is like a fairytale in the future.

Designed primarily in the traditional Chinese style with the 'flip' arched roofs of Suzhou architecture, the original wooden pillars are large and long.

Although it is located in the heart of Suzhou City, China, this house is isolated from the outside world, because it is located on a small island between two Kim Ke Lake and the Single. The campus is designed in accordance with the style of the ancient palace surrounded by flower walls, green bamboo trees at the entrance.

The ponds around this villa area are dewy 24/24. This architecture is modeled after the classic garden of Suzhou, which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Not only possessing a splendid campus, 'Dao Hoa Vien' also has a huge wine cellar and intriguing interior design.

Along with the beautifully decorated gardens in Southeast Asia style, the ancient fairy tale in China continues to be told through the imagination and skillful hands.

Jack Ma's house is about 1.5 hours drive from Shanghai city. And with what you witnessed from above, the $ 154 million figure that Jack Ma spent is not a waste. He proved to the whole world the exceptional tolerance and lifestyle of a contemporary billionaire.

This government-owned apartment has appeared on many popular media channels such as US CNN, ranking in the top 5 most expensive real estate in the world, surpassing equally expensive buildings in California and New York.
