

Final Fantasy VII Remake - Collect 9 'Don Corneo' outfits

Anyone who plays Final Fantasy VII Remake until the end of chapter 9 should be pretty impressed with the perverted old Don Corneo, but how his nine 'bride' candidate outfits can be found.

Anyone who plays Final Fantasy VII Remake until the end of chapter 9 should be pretty impressed with the perverted old Don Corneo, but how his nine 'bride' candidate outfits can be found.

In Final Fantasy VII Remake When experiencing to chapter 9, when Cloud and Aerith go to Wall Market to play, she will see Tifa dressed in a gorgeous dress in a chocobo car to the palace of Don Corneo, the famous old goat, who dominates all activities. dissipated in this area. Despite being kindly asked by Cloud, Tifa doesn't say anything about this, saying only that she can trust because she can handle things smoothly. Of course, in the game it cannot be as simple as in real life waiting for the phone, Cloud and Aerith decide to break into Don's mansion to see what Tifa is ultimately doing. Unfortunately, Cloud is a man and the henchmen of the old man say that he is not interested in men (Andrea is) and Aerith, despite being female, is criticized as a 'dirty alum' country girl, so she is prevented. stop note.

Headache due to the beauty of Tifa and Aerith in Final Fantasy VII Remake

Do not be engrossed with Tifa because in the game Final Fantasy VII Remake there is still a pink ball for you to remember.

With the help of Madam M, Chocobo Sam and his lover Andrea are finally able to get inside to reunite with Tifa and become the three candidates for Don's one-night bridal position. At first it was clear that old Don was clearly inclined to choose Tifa because he was a simple man. But after some provocative words from Cloud, he changed his mind to turn to pick pointed young men and then had to get a sorrowful outcome. That is the main content of the game so we will not discuss it further, what is the achievement of the game requires collecting all 9 costumes of 3 candidates including Cloud, Aerith and Tifa. How can I get enough to unlock this slightly annoying trophy? Let's take a look at the tutorial below.

Cloud Strife

Well, this scene from the original Final Fantasy VII game has made many people panic and now with the excellent graphical effects of the PS4 system, the more girls (and the guy?) Feel nostalgic. The suspect was born more than ever by the feminine beauty of the former SOLDIER. Different from the complexity of the other two girls when being influenced by the actions in chapters 3 and 8, Cloud's choice is easier when one only needs to consider the events in chapter 9. After defeating the Hell House mobile house in the arena, there are two action directions to unlock two different outfits when Cloud pretends to be a girl. Of course, to complete this damn trophy, we have to play the game again 2 more times because only one mission can be followed at a time, to say simply once to follow Madam M's route, once following Chocobo Sam and the last time not following any fathers.

First, if he completes two tasks of Chocobo Sam, after dancing with Andrea in Honey Bee Inn, Cloud will be dressed in a dark blue aristocratic outfit accompanied by braided bow accessories. Her hair and black flowers were upside down. In order to follow the route of Chocobo Sam, you need to complete the following requirements:

1. Interacting with Johnny in the Vagabond Johnny scene at the beginning of chapter 9, answering 'Yeah'.
2. Choose to bet on heads and whatever you lose.
3. Pay 500 gil for the most muscular package when massaging at Madam M.'s shop
4. Answer 'It's alright' when Aerith asks what her dress looks like.

In Madame M's line, the dress looks really cabbage with a dreamy pale purple color, combined with a cheesy choke and a princess-like crown. How Cloud can wear that crown on his spiky hair is still a mystery of nature's creation.

1. Interacting with Johnny in the Vagabond Johnny scene at the beginning of chapter 9, answering 'No'.
2. Absolutely not bet with fraudulent gambling guy.
3. Play around with 3000 Gil for Madam M.'s ultimate super massage package

4. Answer 'What does it matters what I think?' with Aerith fish sauce when he asks how it is.

In the last replay when choosing #kemenos when Chocobo Sam and Madam M wanted Cloud to run the job for them, the former SOLDIER reincarnated as a country girl in a simple dark gray dress with two braided knots. white hair.

Tifa Lockhart

In order to choose a shirt to help her like to use fists, Cloud must complete the extra task in chapter 3. By the time she enters Discovery's cutscene: Alone at Last, Tifa will ask the player what she wears now. Looks best there will be three options including:

Choose to answer Something mature: Tifa will wear a purple dress with her back open, deeply ripped at the chest to expose the voluptuous mounds, making the salivary glands of old goat Don Corneo (and the player) have the opportunity to operate at full capacity. It can be said that in 3 outfits of Tifa, this is the dress that makes men stand their thumbs the most when it perfectly shows what needs to be revealed, though normally Tifa is also very attractive.

If choosing the answer Something . sporty ?, Tifa will wear a cheongsam leather cheongsam fabric. This set actually looks pretty cool but it's a bit cheesy and compared to the combo that shows the upper back exposing the chest, there are indeed too many points not equal. Along with the two dumplings on the heads of Street Fighter fans will probably enjoy this shape, but I don't and take it just to unlock the trophy.

Something exotic? is the weirdest option that is probably absolutely suitable for those who are passionate about Japanese culture when Tifa will flirt in a stylized yukata with black socks and miscellaneous accessories on her head. This is also the only outfit we will see she loves violent lipstick, eyeliner and blush. It's rare but sorry that's not my style either. If the toad player wants to do any of the side quests in Chapter 3 and skip the Discovery: Alone at Last segment to advance to the main mission, Tifa will automatically wear a purple skirt that is both open and ripped, making people excited. above.

Aerith Gainsborough

The flower girl also has a choice of costumes similar to Tifa when influenced by what Cloud does in chapter 8. Accordingly, when completing two or fewer side quests in Sector 5, Aerith will wear a skirt. pink is simple and boring, the true quality of a country girl that Don Corneo's old gatekeepers used to tease her. If players are more diligent when completing 3 to 5 side quests, Aerith will be wearing a dress that is still pink but looks better with a necklace as a highlight. In general, there is some progress but that is still not commensurate with our long-awaited efforts.

The main course is always the last, when plowing all the tasks that can be done in chapter 8, the florist will be generously donated by Madam M to wear a luxurious, elegant bordeaux red dress. , maximizing the pure beauty of Aerith. The perverted masseur who also generously attached Aerith to the luxurious jewelry accessories that made the country girl now walk around in Wall Market will make all lustful eyes have to glance more. times for pleasure. In order to deserve the appearance of a star, the pimp Johnny also followed to provide more elegant red carpet service that made Cloud stand still for quite a long time to recover.
