Fishing Guide in Tsuki's Odyssey

In Tsuki's Odyssey, players can buy fishing rods from Yori's shop. Locate this store from the map by tapping the smartphone at the bottom of the screen. Next, tap the marker/pin icon to access the map. Find Yori's shop to the left of her tree house.

Once inside Yori's shop, people can buy furniture and other items. During the day, Yori sells furniture, but if shopping at night, Elfie will be at the counter. Gamers can purchase furniture and decorations from both Yori and Elfie. Furniture and decor items are displayed on the first floor. Just touch an item to buy it.

In the same store, Pipi or Paige (at night Paige takes over in place of Pipi) will sell items and games upstairs. Players can buy fishing rods from Pipi or Paige upstairs. It was placed on the display case in front of Pipi.

After that, people can also buy fishing rods from Yori's shop but will have to peel more carrots to buy. The more advanced fishing rod than the basic one costs 7500 carrots to buy it.

When touching the fishing rod, an enlarged item with description will be displayed. Tap the shopping bag icon with a blue background in the lower right corner of the magnified item to buy a fishing rod for 1000 carrots.

After buying a fishing rod, head straight to the pier near Stone Temple - the first fishing spot in Tsuki's Odyssey. People will find additional points as more locations are unlocked.

At this time Tsuki will chill while fishing. People need to press the blue button on the river, next to the jetty to start fishing.

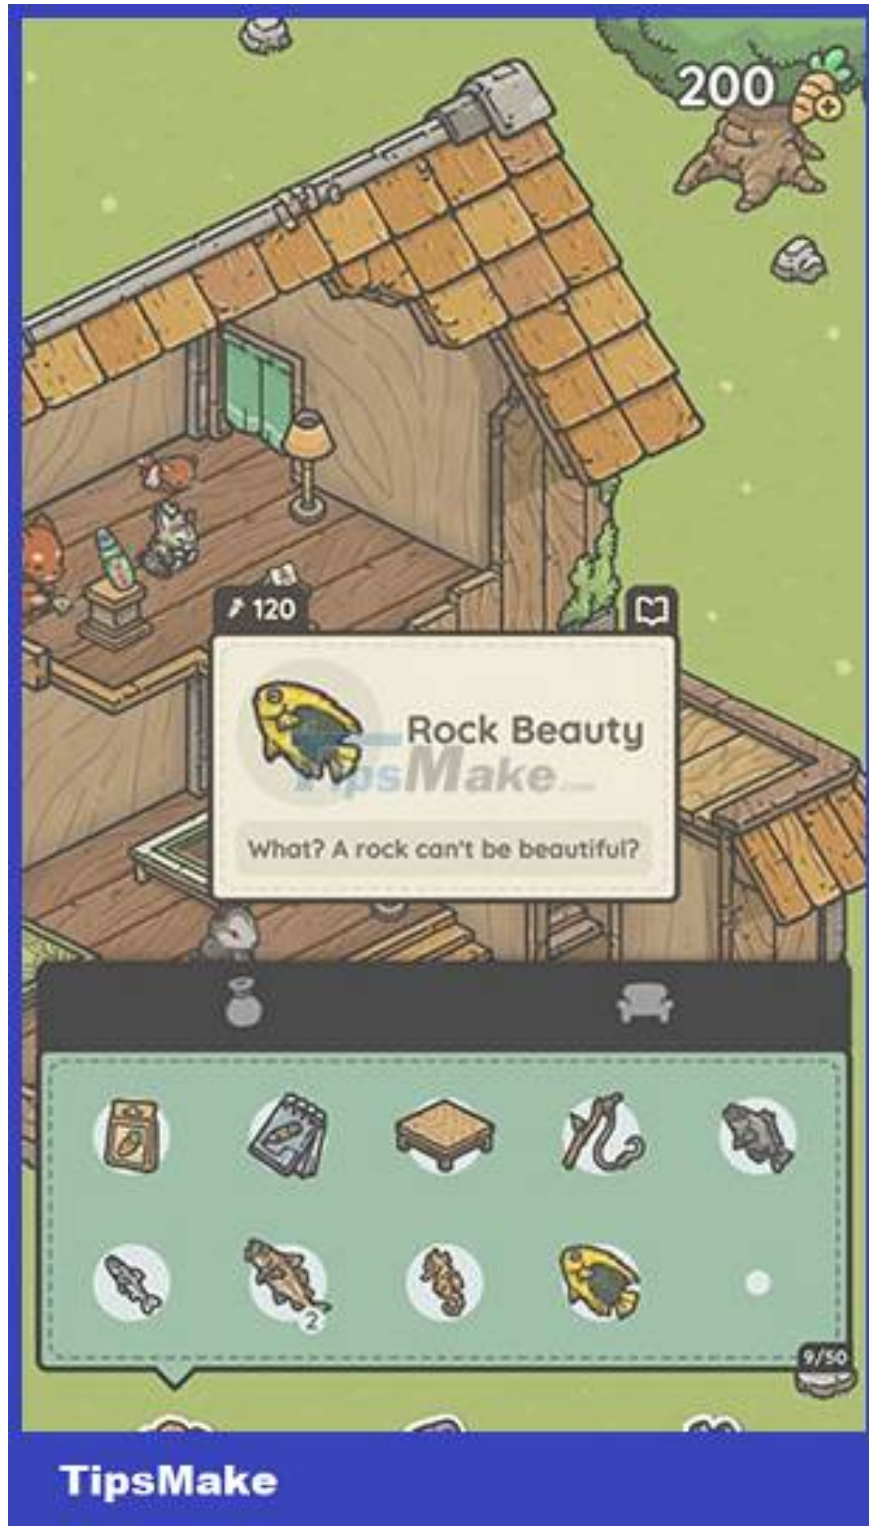

The player will hear a sound signaling the fish to bite and Tsuki pulls the fishing rod. Click anywhere to wind the fishing line when the sound is heard.

All fish will be stored in stock, just tap the red bag in the lower left corner of the screen, then select a fish to know its selling price.

Some fish will sell more carrots than others. For example, Rock Beauty can be sold for 120 carrots while Anchovy only costs 20 carrots.
