FAQ about Code Blox Fruits

Gift codes not only help players receive free rewards but also play a crucial role in leveling up, especially in the early stages. Below are the biggest benefits of using gift codes correctly:

1. Double experience points (2× EXP)

1. When activating the EXP bonus code, players will receive 20-30 minutes of double experience. This is a golden period for farming monsters, completing quests, or continuously fighting bosses to level up twice as fast as normal. If combined with the EXP buff from Devil Fruits, the amount of experience received can increase by more than 300%.

2. Reset the stats (Stat Reset)

1. Players who want to change their build direction – for example, switching from a Swordsman build to a Devil Fruit build – can use the Stat Reset code to get all skill points back. This allows you to experiment with different playstyles without spending Beli or Robux.

3. Receive Beli and special titles.

1. Some codes, like fudd10_v2, may only give you a few Beli coins, but they carry a fun meaning and symbolize the game's long-standing community. Meanwhile, the Bignews code grants you an 'In-game Title' displayed next to your character name, helping you stand out on the server.

Tips for maximizing Giftcode rewards

1. Combine EXP buffs with main quests: When you have 2x EXP, focus on completing quests or fighting high-level bosses to maximize the buff duration.
2. Use Stat Reset wisely: Only reset your stats when absolutely necessary, because after changing builds, you'll need time to adapt to new weapons and skills.
3. Follow the official event and Discord server: New codes are often released during major updates or holidays (Halloween, Christmas, New Year.).
4. Save the code aggregator page: To avoid missing any releases, you should save the code aggregator page and check it weekly.

Blox Fruits is appealing not only for its adventure and combat gameplay, and diverse Devil Fruit system, but also for the continuous attention from the development team. The free Giftcode updates make it easy for new players to access the game and help maintain a long-term community.

Whether you're a Pirate or a Marine, don't forget to check and enter the reward codes each month so you don't miss out on the chance to level up quickly, get rich with Beli, and explore the ocean in your own way.
