

Genshin Impact 2.5: Kazuha and Raiden Shogun will be rerun

In the latest leak about version 2.5 of Genshin Impact, there is notable information that two characters Kazuha and Raiden Shogun will be rerun.

Genshin Impact gamers will probably be delighted to hear that some recent leaks have suggested that Kazuha and Raiden Shogun will be returning for 2.5. Different leakers all give similar leak information to each other, although it is not possible to confirm, but it seems that these two characters will be rerun in the second half of 2.5.

Since being released so far, both of these characters have never been rerun, but they are very popular in the gaming community, so players are looking forward to whether the information is confirmed or not. Some old leaks also suggest that Kazuha will be rerun in 2.5 or 2.6 but it will most likely be the first one.

As for Raiden Shogun, this is one of the characters with huge sales in Genshin Impact and gamers who can't own her will soon have the opportunity to try their luck and bring the Raiden Shogun home. Although the rerun of these two characters is still in doubt, the Zhongli rerun has happened so there is hope for 2.5.

Recent versions all follow a 42-day cycle, which means that after 42 days a new version will be released. Version 2.4 of Genshin Impact will be broadcast on January 5, 2022, and 21 days later, the Yae Miko banner will be released in the second half. If it takes another 21 days, version 2.5 will probably be updated on March 9.
