Nod-Krai in Genshin Impact is one of the outer regions of Snezhnaya. Here is the latest information about Nod-Krai in Genshin Impact.

Genshin Impact is nearing the end of the Natlan stage, and it's time to head to Snezhnaya, the land of the Fatui. The game has been setting up for the Snezhnaya arc since day one of the game, ever since La Signora stole the first Gnosis. However, before the Traveler can reach Snezhnaya, they must pass through Nod-Krai.

Nod-Krai in Genshin Impact is one of the outer regions of Snezhnaya, where merchants from other regions can still enter and sell their goods. Here is the latest information about Nod-Krai in Genshin Impact .

Nod-Krai in Genshin Impact: Location, Setting, and Unique Powers

Nod-Krai is a region located at the southern tip of Snezhnaya and also serves as an entry point to Snezhnaya. People from all over Teyvat gather in Nod-Krai in search of opportunities to strike it rich. Liben, a famous merchant in Genshin Impact who also acts as an informant for new regions, has warned that people suspected of possessing large amounts of Mora are often targeted in Nod-Krai. This clearly labels Nod-Krai as a dangerous place but one where you can strike it rich if you have the chance.

When it comes to the landscape of Nod-Krai, it is mentioned as a region with a harsh environment. Winter in Snezhnaya is characterized by constant storms, so we can expect that Nod-Krai will have a lot of snow, glaciers, blizzards and a generally harsh climate.

Currently, we only know of one town in Nod-Krai called 'Nasha'. Helka, one of the NPCs in Genshin Impact, has asked Travelers to 'go to Speranza' in Nasha Town if they ever come to Nod-Krai.

Players also know that there is a Fatui stronghold in Nod-Krai, led by Il Dottore, the second-in-command of the Fatui Harbinger. Additionally, Mavuika has mentioned that the people of Nod-Krai possess a secret power that is much older than the seven elements of Teyvat. Therefore, Genshin Impact players can expect Il Dottore to be interested in this power, which is why he is stationed in Nod-Krai.

When will Nod-Krai be added to Genshin Impact?

Nod-Krai is expected to be a large area, not just an addition like Chenyu Vale. Some leaks even mention that Nod-Krai will appear in the entire arc of version 6.x, while Snezhnaya will be in version 7.x. Rumors say that the entire Snezhnaya arc will consist of two phases, one in version 6.x and the final part in version 7.x. If this is not true, then players can expect Nod-Krai to be released at the end of Genshin Impact 5.x or early version 6.x, serving as the entrance to Snezhnaya.
