

Genshin Impact: Summary of the location of the Mystic Stone in Hadramaveth . Desert

In Genshin Impact version 3.4, in the Hadramaveth Desert there are a total of six Mystic Stones scattered across the map that can be used to open two doors. This article will help you understand the exact location of all 6 stones.

Location of the Mystic Stones

Tran Linh Liloupar has an important role in the player's exploration of the Genshin Impact 3.4 Sumeru desert. Tran Linh can assist in the scattering of some Atmospheric Vortexes, from which items, creatures, chests or puzzles can be revealed. However, it should also be noted that after using Tran Linh's power, you need to return to Tran Linh Temple to restore Liloupar's power. Once enough Liloupar pieces have been collected, Tran Linh Temple will even be marked on the map.

There are a total of six Mystic Stones in Genshin Impact. All of them are hidden near Tran Linh Temple, and five of them are hidden behind an illusion wall. The player can locate the fake wall using Elemental Perspective, where the illusion will appear as white. You just need to go through the white wall to dispel the illusion. Here are 6 locations where you can find Mystic Stones. Specifically:

Mystic Stone I
