

Genshin Impact: Update leaked information about new character Yelan

Yelan is a completely new female character of Genshin Impact that is receiving great attention and expectations from the gaming community.

New characters are always one of the things that bring the greatest excitement to the Genshin Impact gaming community. And the 2.4 update has not only introduced Shenhe and Yun Jin fans, but also quietly revealed another mysterious name.

Specifically, in the song that Yun Jin performed, we can see the appearance of a new character. The character's name has been confirmed as Yelan and she will definitely become a playable character in Genshin Impact in the upcoming versions.

And according to leaked information, Yelan will officially appear in update 2.7, which will fall in about 5 years, if there is no change in miHoYo's traditional release plan. .

In addition, Yelan is also said to be a character possessing a Water-type Vision and using a Bow similar to Childe. More noticeable when Yelan is a 5-star character and has the ability to change weapons flexibly.

Before Yelan, gamers can also look forward to the opening stage of other characters such as Yae Miko, Kamisato Ayaka, Shikanoin Heizou and even Kuki Shinobu. In particular, Yae Miko has been officially confirmed to be in Genshin Impact 2.5.

You finished reading the article "Genshin Impact: Update leaked information about new character Yelan" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
