

Genshin Impact: Why is Yae Miko attracting attention from gamers?

The first official information about Yae Miko in Genshin Impact 2.5 was suddenly announced by miHoYo before 2021 completely ended.

Recently, miHoYo suddenly released a special announcement with loads of important information related to Genshin Impact 2.5 version to send to the gaming community during the transition between 2021 and 2022.

The highlight of this announcement is definitely the brand new female character that we have been leaking for a long time - Yae Miko. Immediately, Yae Miko became a hot topic of discussion among Genshin Impact player communities around the world.

The first reason is because right after Genshin Impact updated to version 2.0 and opened the story of the land of Inazuma, Yae Miko appeared in the main plot. Therefore, gamers were soon exposed and knew about this girl.

And after going through a series of interesting events, tasks, and storylines with Yae Miko, players want to own this character more than ever. Therefore, the information about Yae Miko's appearance in the 2.5 update has created an extreme excitement for fans.

Another equally important factor is that the 2.4 update does not bring attractive banners for "oldbie" players, because up to 3/4 of the 5-star characters in this version have appeared. shown in the previous banners.

That makes the attention of most gamers focus on version 2.5 with the appearance of Yae Miko. This girl promises to have a big impact on Genshin Impact's meta as a Lightning character, using a 5-star magic weapon and having a high rate of DPS.

You finished reading the article "Genshin Impact: Why is Yae Miko attracting attention from gamers?" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.