

Google Stadia officially launched with the participation of 22 hit games

Google Stadia was officially launched today, November 19 in the US and European markets

After many days of waiting, Google Stadia has finally officially launched today, November 19 in the US and Europe market before the eagerness of hundreds of thousands of 'gamers'. Most noteworthy is the impressive 'line-up' array of 22 hit games available on this platform.

The number of 22 games available on Stadia on the first day of launch made many people surprised by the confusion because before, Google had confirmed as sure that only 12 titles would appear on the game. This hit cloud gaming service platform is at an early stage.

As mentioned, Google will prioritize the Americas and European market experience before Stadia for 2 months. Then early in 2020, the company will bring this cloud gaming platform to all the remaining markets on a specific schedule. Vietnamese gamers will likely have to wait for at least another half a year to have the opportunity to experience Stadia, but this is not necessarily bad news because by that time, the service will run a lot more smoothly. With the new release, this is for sure.

Here is a list of the first 22 titles featured on the Google Stadia platform:

1. Assassin's Creed Odyssey
2. Destiny 2: The Collection
3. GYLT
4. Just Dance 2020
5. Kine
6. Mortal Kombat 11
7. Red Dead Redemption 2

8. Thumper
9. Tomb Raider
10. Rise of the Tomb Raider
11. Shadow of the Tomb Raider
12. Samurai Shodown
13. Attack on Titan 2: Final Battle
14. Farming Simulator 19
15. Final Fantasy 15
16. Football Manager 2020
17. Grid (with exclusive mode)
18. Metro Exodus
19. NBA 2K20
20. Rage 2
21. Trials Rising
22. Wolfenstein: Youngblood

Google Stadia is a platform that allows gaming as well as streaming blockbusters, graphic-intensive video games through Google's own cloud service. With this new platform, users only need Chrome browser and high speed Internet to be able to fight any terrible game. With this new platform, users only need Chrome browser and high-speed, stable Internet to be able to fight most of the great games, and can also stream all the content they want on almost any device with an internet connection today.

Stadia promises to fundamentally change the method of playing games as well as streaming live video (livestream) today, from the form of individualization to centralized regions as well as servers through an internet connection.
