

Guide how to revive Pokemon in Pokemon Go

Pokémon is the soul, playing an important role in your team. After going through rehearsals and defending the Gym, the team's Pokémon will fall into a low level of blood. So how to deal with this situation?

In order to help your team win and overwhelm opponents, each Pokémon warrior holds a key role, helping each player to perform his offensive tactics. And after going through the training sessions, protecting the GYM room, the amount of blood of the Pokémon may gradually be exhausted, leading to the situation of Faint. This will make the Pokémon unable to withstand the next match, affecting the strength and ability of the team to win. Therefore, what each coach needs to do is to revive the Pokémon whose blood is running out.

1. Revive Pokémon with items:

Just like Pokémon versions, we will use items to "revive" Pokémon warriors. Revive and Potion are two valuable items, which have a large effect on reviving weak Pokémon with low health. However, the case for using these two items is also slightly different.

If you use Revive , Pokémon can recover a small amount of health during battle. As for Potion , all Pokémon's energy and blood will be recovered quickly, creating strong fighting abilities for Pokémon.

2. Where to find items revived for Pokémon?

There are two ways you can get these items: Pokéshop or Pokéstop .

For Pokéstop, you will have to go to many places to find luck for yourself. Here, game players can randomly get too many attractive items. And because after 10-15 minutes Pokéstops will refresh again, you can return to Pokéstop in a day to get rewards. A random gift can be a Pokécoins, or a resurrection item.
