

Guide to creating short AI videos using Google Vids

If you need a video to illustrate your lesson, you can use the video creation tool available on Google Vids.

If you need a video to illustrate your lesson, you can use the built-in video creation tool on Google Vids. Simply enter your description, and Google Vids will turn your idea into a complete video in just a few minutes, from scripting and image selection to adding voiceovers and background music.

The tool also offers many flexible editing options so users can get the video they want. Below are instructions on creating AI videos on Google Vids using two different methods.

Instructions on converting images to videos using Google Videos

Step 1:

On the Google Videos interface, we create a new video, then click on the Veo tool in the upper right corner as shown in the image.

Step 2:

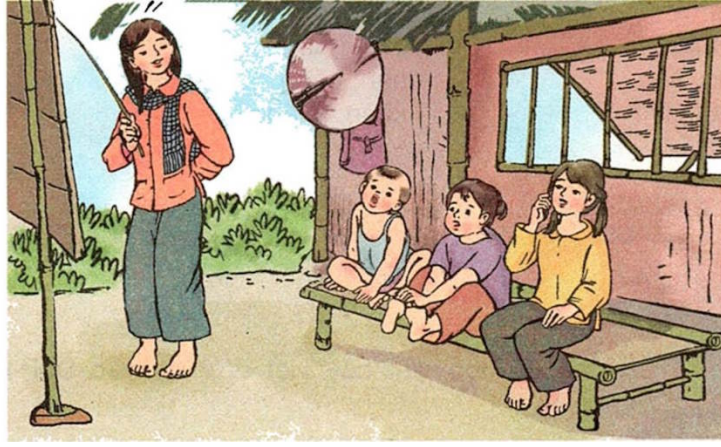

Switching to the video creation interface, we select the "Create Animation" mode to convert photos into videos.

At this point, you will see an interface to upload images and then enter a motion description for the video.

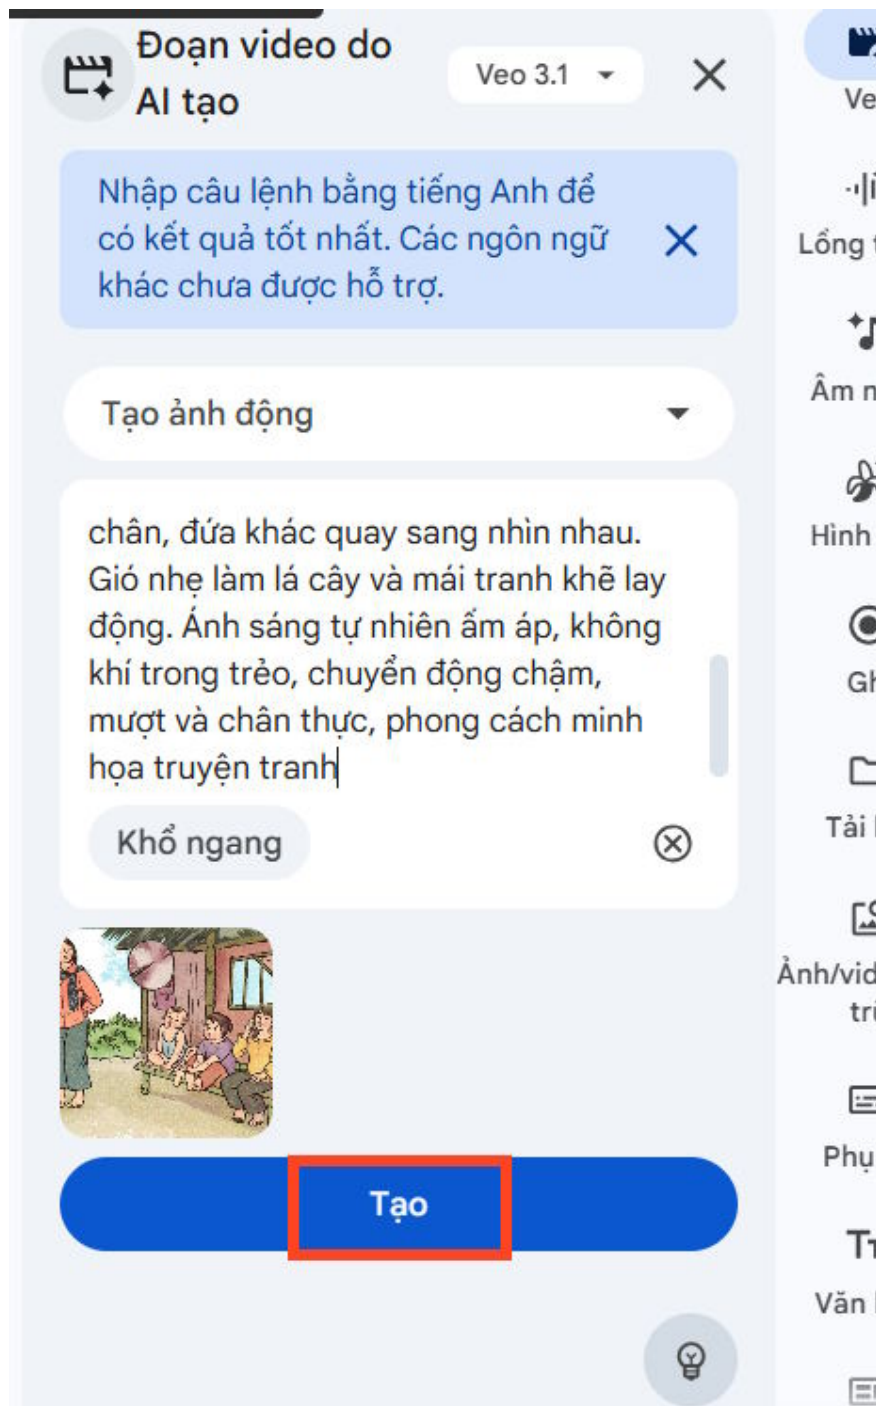

For example, use the image below and then enter the animation prompt below for your reference. We can use ChatGPT to create animation descriptions for videos.

Finally, press the Create button to start animating the image.

Step 3:

You will now see the video created from the photos on Google Vids. Click Insert to insert it into the Google Vids interface, or click Recreate to change the description.

Step 4:

In the video interface on Google Vids, you tap the Animated Photo icon to add effects to your video.

On the right side, you'll find options for customizing video animation effects . You can choose the appearance effect for the video and loop the video if needed.
