Movement of half-face makeup is causing a fever on a large scale, making women all over the world race " makeover " initiated by beauty blogger Nikkie on Instagram social network. The keyword #ThePowerofMakeup also becomes a popular mantra.

Specifically, the girls will post a picture of half of their face makeup and ask their friends if they look better. Many people can't help but be surprised when the " truth " is exposed in the light! How beautiful is the face on the face, the rustic side says it all.

That's probably also the reason why women spend hours on makeup carefully before leaving the street!

In addition to humor, surprise and originality, this trend is like a clarification of every girl to the eyebrow whiskers, that waiting for her makeup for hours is absolutely deserved.

Two half faces with two completely different styles!

Although it has just emerged, it has immediately spread on social networks!

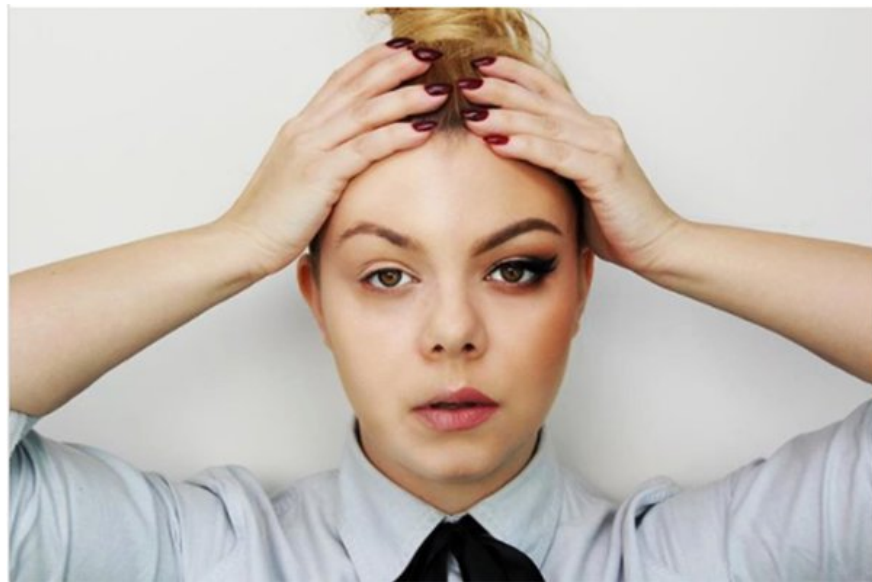

Undeniably, when adding a make-up class, the girls look more individual and sharp.

This trend is followed by a lot of girls and constantly publishes these interesting photos on social networks.

Must recognize one thing is that both are really excellent!

It turns out that makeup can completely change the morale of a person like this.

The images are full of surprises but not everyone is witnessed daily!

As a result, there are no bad women, only women do not know how to beautify!

Two half faces are two different personalities!

This is probably the least changed half face!

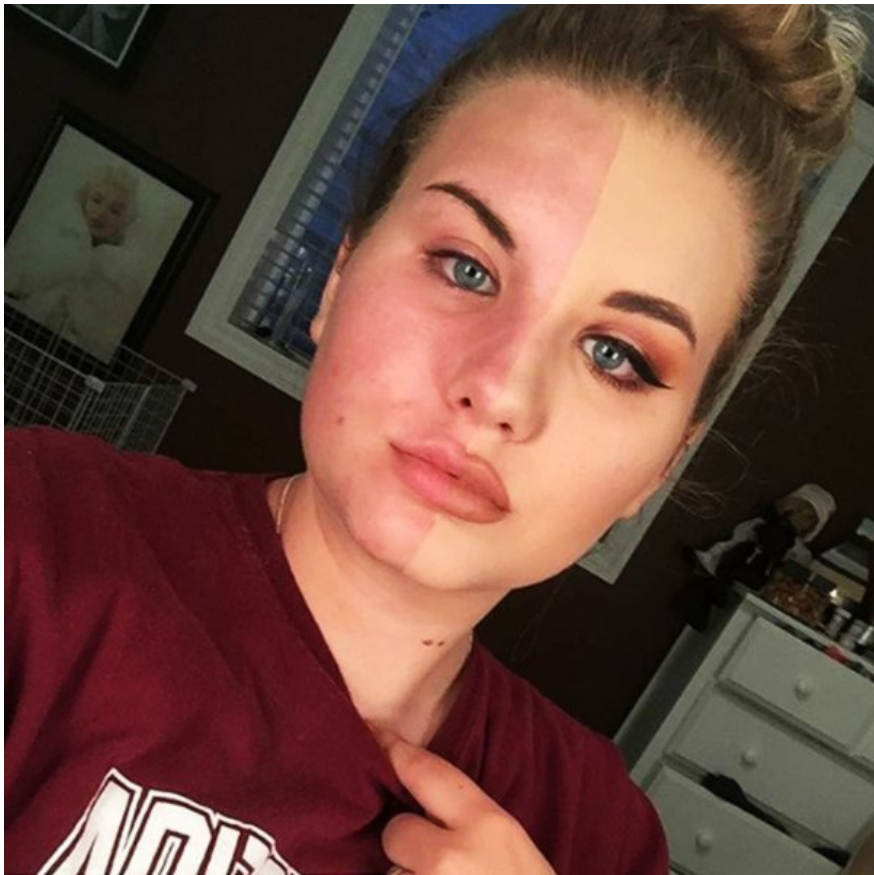

What do you think?

Of course, half the makeup is better!

None of us are perfect, everyone is trying to make themselves better every day. And so is makeup, we just want to be more beautiful in the eyes of others, not the "mask" like people often think. Try to keep your face bright when you are with everyone!
