

Has Apple Pay supported in Vietnam yet?

You can now add credit, debit and prepaid card information from banks and card issuers in the following countries and territories to pay with Apple Pay.

Apple Pay is a form of wireless payment, which performs transactions without a card but uses iPhone, iPad, Apple Watch and Mac immediately. Paying via Apple Pay will bring convenience, safety and fast.

Apple Pay is approved wherever there is this icon in stores (depending on the country there will be other symbols), or this icon on apps and web on Safari. You can now add credit, debit and prepaid card information from banks and card issuers in the following countries and territories to pay with Apple Pay.

Asia-Pacific region: Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Japan, China (currently not available on Safari).

European region: Denmark, Monaco, Finland, Russia, San Marino, France, Spain, Guernsey, Ireland, Sweden, Switzerland, England, Italy, Man Island, Vatican, Jersey.

Regional Latin America and the Caribbean: Brazil.

Middle East Region: United Arab Emirates.

North America: USA, Canada.

In the list of countries and territories that support Apple Pay above, there is no Vietnamese name yet, so users will have to wait a while.

See more:

1. How to transfer money via Apple Pay Cash iMessage on iPhone
2. Apple Pay Cash began to deploy globally
3. How to protect your credit card is not hacked

You finished reading the article "Has Apple Pay supported in Vietnam yet?" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.