

Have you played the Goodia Run game for the FA people?

Goodia Run is a game that runs Endless Runner on Android, iOS with attractive content that is breaking the couple on the way from the FA guy.

A new runner game that appears on Android and iOS is called Goodia Run or Couple Crusher. The game has the same gameplay and gameplay as other Endless Runner games, such as Temple Run and Surfer Subway, which are familiar to most gamers of this non-ending game series.

However, Goodia Run's request is quite interesting that we will play the FA guy to break the couple on the road. What needs to be done to separate the couple is that you need to move into the middle of the couple and go through them, so as not to stumble over 1 in 2 people. If the user moves in the wrong position, or moves far away, you will be the one who is "handled" by the couple to break them. In general, Goodia Run has a familiar way of playing so you won't need time to learn how to play in the game. The tricky point here is to move in the middle position behind the couples, and move the distance as far as possible.

You just need to move quickly and skillfully between couples to get through them. For every break of a couple, we get 1 point. The hard part here is how to move exactly in the middle position to get 1 point. If you just need a little deviation from the middle position, you will encounter a couple.

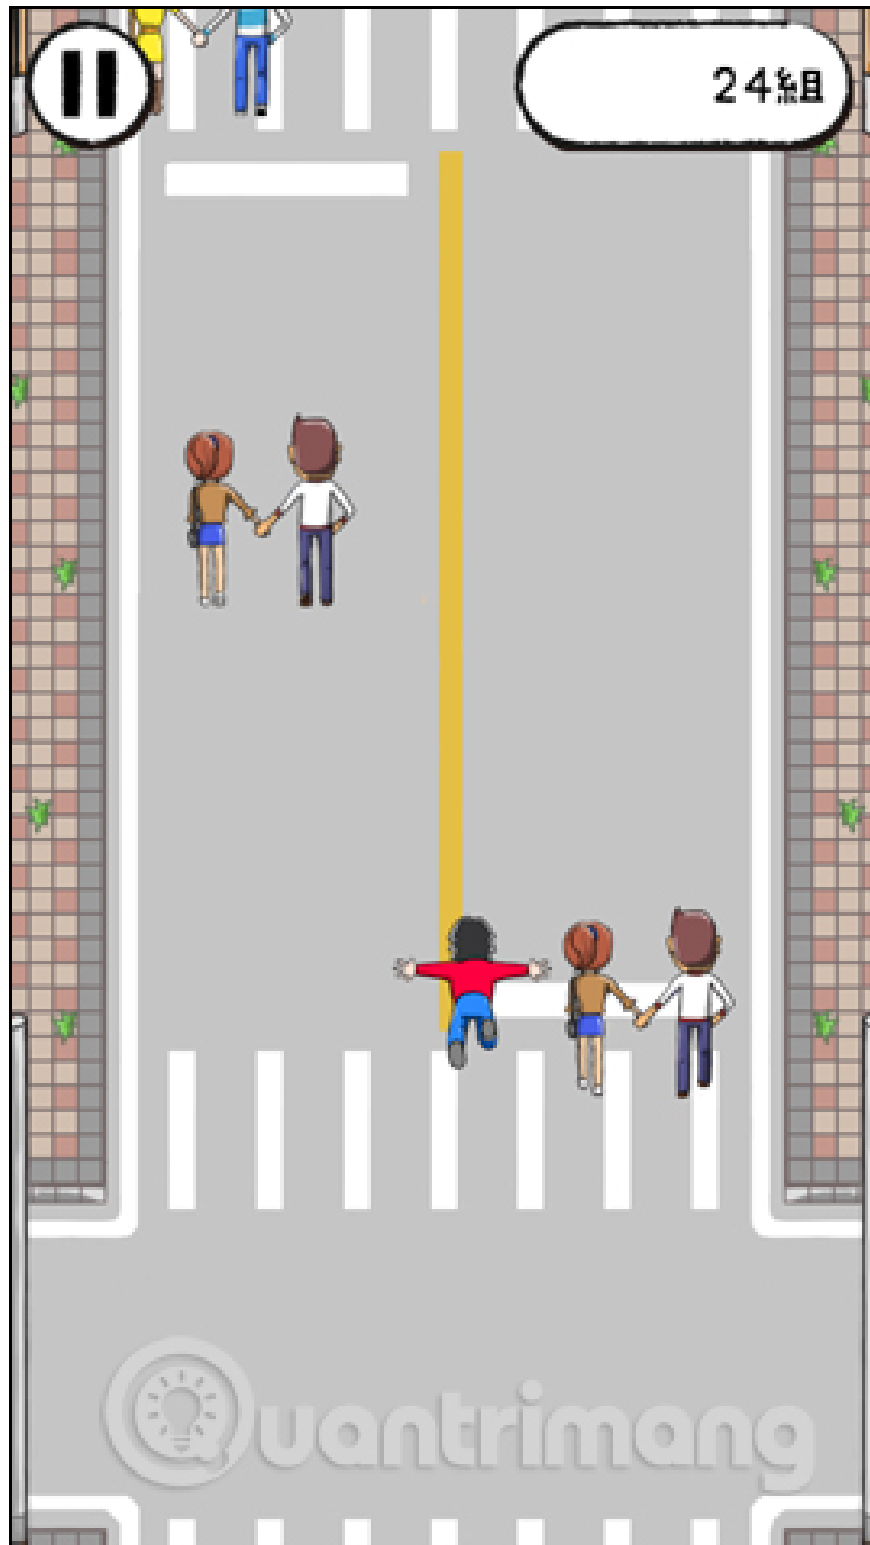

If you accidentally hit the couple, you will have to play again from the beginning. In addition, in the race, you must not ignore any couple. If you skip any pair, you must play again from the beginning.

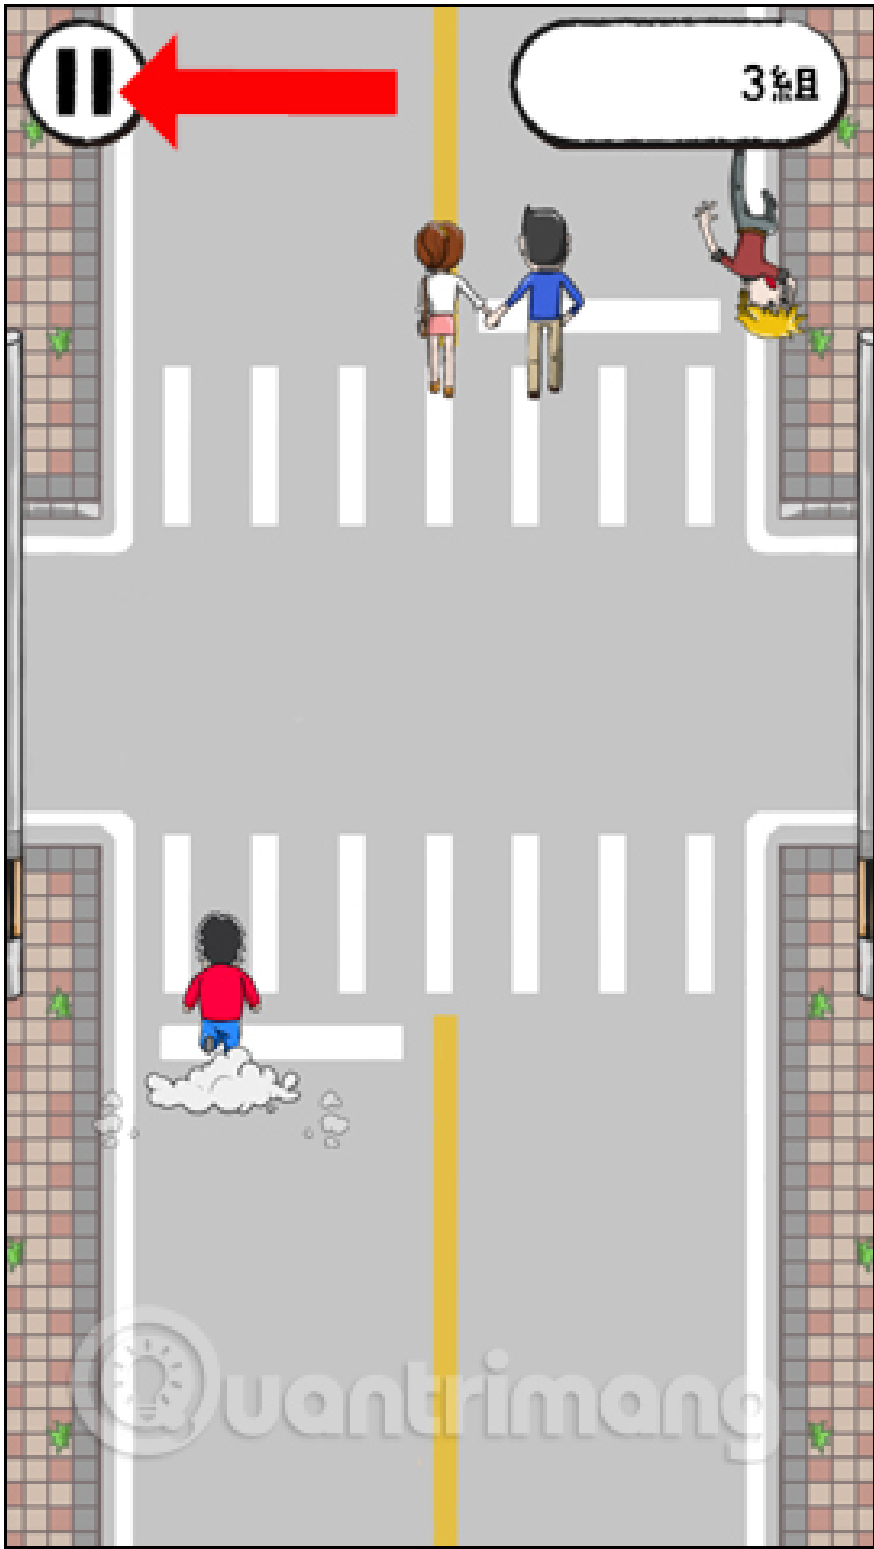

More and more later, there will be a lot of couples appearing on the road, the frequency with many appearances will be narrowed compared to the first playing distance. That running speed also increased. This will make it difficult for players to adjust the guy FA in the game, change the direction of the game so that it is accurate.

Step 3:

During the game you want to stop, click the pause icon in the left corner of the screen. To continue playing, click on the first text box as shown below.

Step 4:

At the end of a game, the player will receive the total number of points he can score, along with the highest score you can achieve when playing Goodia Run. To go to the new game screen, click on the rotating arrow . If you want to go to the homepage, click the Home icon.

A fast-paced game with graphics, gameplay is not too complicated and simple, with humorous requests to break the couple on the road of the FA. We do not need to jump high, exceed many obstacles but just move in the right position, to break the couples on the road. Try to see how long you can go with the score.
