Learn about the Ngo Quoc squad

The Ngo Quoc squad is a squad specializing in archers with high damage ability. If you love the gameplay with wide area damage, this will be an extremely suitable squad for gamers.

Suggested generals of Ngo Quoc for each position

Military master

In Alo Chu Chuong, each squad will choose a suitable support advisor for the team's strategy. With the main squad being Ngo Quoc archers, the most suitable strategist is of course Chu Du with the ability to buff his troops' arrows into rockets, speed up attacks and cause burns.

Home Minister

In Alo Chu Che, each squad will have a maximum of 8 generals, so players need to choose generals that fit the following criteria: Strong, can coordinate well, and activate many combination effects. For the Ngo Quoc archer squad, Tieu Kieu would like to suggest the following generals:

Cam Ninh: The main force, the main damage dealer of this squad, Cam Ninh has the ability to both deal multi-target damage and increase enemy damage in burn and slow states, and is the perfect combination with strategist Chu. Du.

Thai Su Tu: Assistant, although the damage is not as good as Cam Ninh, the ability to survive is better when able to counterattack close-combat enemies.

Ton Thuong Huong: Easy to find, easy to attract Archer Ngo Quoc in the squad, average damage.

Tieu Kieu: Creates a sound that buffs damage to the entire squad

Hoang Cai: has the ability to both tank and heal his team. Although he is only an SR general, he is still extremely important in this squad.

Divine beast

With a squad that depends heavily on shield soldiers to protect the back row, the most suitable divine beast will be Triet Dia Nguu with the ability to reduce damage suffered by shield soldiers and restore vitality to the weakest champion on your side.

Suggestions on how to arrange Ngo Quoc's squad

The main Ngo archer squad is quite easy to arrange, so place the archers in the last row and the tank in the top row, blocking the enemy from sneaking behind. Be careful to avoid letting infantry encounter heavy enemy cavalry to avoid being penetrated.

You can refer to the illustrated lineup below.
