

History and meaning of Vietnamese Women's Day 20-10

Vietnamese Women's Day 20 - 10 has a history of more than 80 years. Through the historical and difficult periods of the nation, the role of women has been increasingly affirmed, so that on October 20, it has become extremely significant.

Like other countries in the world, Vietnam also dedicated a day to honor the beauty of women, not only because of its charming beauty outside and also because of its good and precious qualities. Vietnamese Women's Day 20-10 has a history of more than 80 years. Through the historical and difficult periods of the nation, the role of women has been increasingly affirmed, so that on October 20, it has become extremely significant.

1. History of Vietnamese Women's Day 20-10

Vietnam is an agricultural country with wet rice civilization that requires care, meticulously cultivated, skillful and diligent, so long ago women had a very important role in the family. . From cultivating rice, making crafts to taking care of children and completing jobs in the family, there is a Vietnamese woman's hand.

Vietnam's history is the long years of resistance against foreign invaders: fighting against the enemy of the North, against the French colonialists, against the American imperialism . In every war, there is a great contribution of the brave woman. , heroic.

We have heroines who have entered the legendary history of the ages such as: Mrs. Trieu, Mrs. Trung Trac, Trung Nhi, Nguyen Thi Dinh, Bui Thi Xuan, Nguyen Thi Minh Khai, Thai Thi Bon, Ton Thi Cinnamon.

In order to talk about the beauty of Vietnamese women, Uncle Ho used 8 golden letters "Hero, indomitable, middle-aged and secure". The first political platform of the Communist Party of Vietnam since its inception has indicated "feminist men and women" and recognized the great role of women in life as well as in the long-term resistance of the people. clan.

On October 20, 1930, the Women's Union was officially established and from then on, October 20, every year was chosen as the anniversary and honor of Vietnamese women, named " Vietnamese Women's Day ". Male ". Through the historical and difficult periods of the nation, the role of women has been increasingly affirmed, so that on October 20, it has become extremely significant.

2. The role of Vietnamese women

During the resistance war against the French colonialists and the American imperialists, the Vietnamese women were the ones who "kept the village, kept the country, kept the cottage roof, kept the ripe rice fields" solid, solid as bamboo, when the enemy come, hold the stick, hold the stick against the enemy, when the enemy goes back, it looks peaceful, soon the flood day, the frequency of taking care of the house to the husband, let me feel secure on the way to fight the invaders.

They are the solid rear, day and night trying to produce and cultivate food, essential supplies for the battlefield and also a source of spiritual encouragement, great strength to keep the soldiers out of the war. firmly defend the country.

We also can not help mentioning Mrs. Vo Thi Sau - a small woman who bravely attacked and attacked 20 enemies. Although she was captured and tortured by the enemy, she always maintained her resilience. Until the day when the enemy was shot, he stood up straight and refused to bow to the enemy.

Vietnamese women are both skillful and skillful, as fast and brave as 10 heroic girls at Dong Loc T-junction, like a passionate young doctor Dang Thuy Tram, as a young guerrilla Vo Thi Sau and like thousands, tens of thousands of soldiers, girls paving the way despite hardships and dangers always raise their voices.

In today's era of national construction, Vietnamese women bring modern and dynamic beauty, both working outside the society and taking care of their children, taking care of the housework. They are the contributors to the charming beauty and national cultural identity.

There are many successful women in many fields, famous in the country and the world such as Vietjet Air CEO: Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao, CEO of Vinamilk: Mai Kien Lien, female entrepreneur Pham Thi Viet Nga of Hau Giang Pharmacy , CEO BacABank and TH Group: Ms. Thai Huong . and with many young people with intelligence and talent are increasingly affirming the position of Vietnamese women in the world.

3. The meaning of Vietnamese Women's Day 20-10

Vietnam Women's Day October 20 is an opportunity to honor women, not only on the charming beauty outside but also the beauty in the diligence, suffering, hardship, and sacrifice for happiness family.

Modern Vietnamese women are under a lot of pressure, stress and fatigue to balance work and family. Therefore, Vietnamese Women's Day 20 - 10 is an opportunity for men to express their affection and gratitude to their pro-female women. Use small gifts, fresh bouquets, encouraging words instead of sincere thanks to women.

At the same time, October 20 is also an occasion to affirm the role, position and merit of women in the family as well as in modern society. In order for them to see the recognition and concern of the society, to create a source of strength to strive, strive in life, to bring into full play their talents and roles.

You finished reading the article "History and meaning of Vietnamese Women's Day 20-10" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
