In contrast to Himeko Honkai Star Rail March 7, in every mission as a tank, she is a member of the tier list of the best Honkai Star Rail in the game.

March 7 is now present in quite a few Honkai Star Rail lineups . This is a defensive unit.

March 7 special skills and gameplay

Her signature skill, Power of Cuteness, is one of the most reliable sources of shielding in the game. It also reduces DEF, reinforcing March's tank role. This skill works in tandem with March's passive, Girl Power, allowing her to perform a counterattack whenever an enemy attacks a shielded ally.

There are some good Light Cones for " March 7th " because really things that increase DEF or Shield Strength are harder to fault than others. One of the best Light Cones that March can use is Day One Of My New Life , a 4-star light cone that increases the player's DEF and the DMG RES of all team members. March benefits greatly from anything that increases her DEF as it also increases the effectiveness of her shield.

Landau's Choice is another great Light Cone for March and any other tank that doesn't have provocative abilities. It makes the user more likely to be targeted by enemies while also increasing their resistance to damage. With this equipment, March 7 can focus on shielding himself.

For Relics, Knight of Purity Palace is the best choice March has, thanks to the passive for DEF and Shield Strength. Ideally, players should be looking for as much DEF and Effect Lift Rate on their individual Relic shards. Combine these with the Belobog of the Architects Planar Ornament to maximize the defense of March 7.
