

How fast can a fire spread?

The video below is set up by the New Zealand Fire Service Center to show you how scary the fire can be. It only came from a small fire, but in less than 1 minute, the entire room was burned down.

Fire is an accident that no one wants it to happen. Sometimes, just because of a little subjectivity of a human being, a whole house is burned down in a flash. Every fire left huge consequences on property and even people.

The video below is set up by the New Zealand Fire Service Center to show you how scary the fire can be. It only came from a small fire, but in less than 1 minute, the entire room was burned down.

In the video, the fire broke out from the heater, caught on the clothes around and quickly caught fire to the point of uncontrollable. At this point, it is very likely that the fire will spread and burn down the entire house before the fire emerges.

In fact, there are many possible causes of fire from forgetting the gas stove, irons, water heaters, water heaters . So everyone needs to be careful before leaving the room, and always Always prepare an emergency escape plan to save yourself and everyone around you.

1. Smoke - The killer killed invisible in fires
2. Guide 8 escape skills when there is fire in high-rise buildings

You finished reading the article "How fast can a fire spread?" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.