

How to Active Office 2016 using CMD without a license key

With the way to Active Office 2016 using CMD that we share in this article, you will be able to experience the functions of Office 2016 without having to worry about losing money to buy a key. This will help you save a small amount of money while still using this office tool effectively.

By activating Office 2016 with CMD below, users can activate the license permanently and use all the functions of the Microsoft Office 2016 office suite, helping to optimize daily work.

Why is Active Office 2016 using CMD so important?

Activating Office 2016 license using Command Prompt is very important because this will open up a series of important features and benefits for users including:

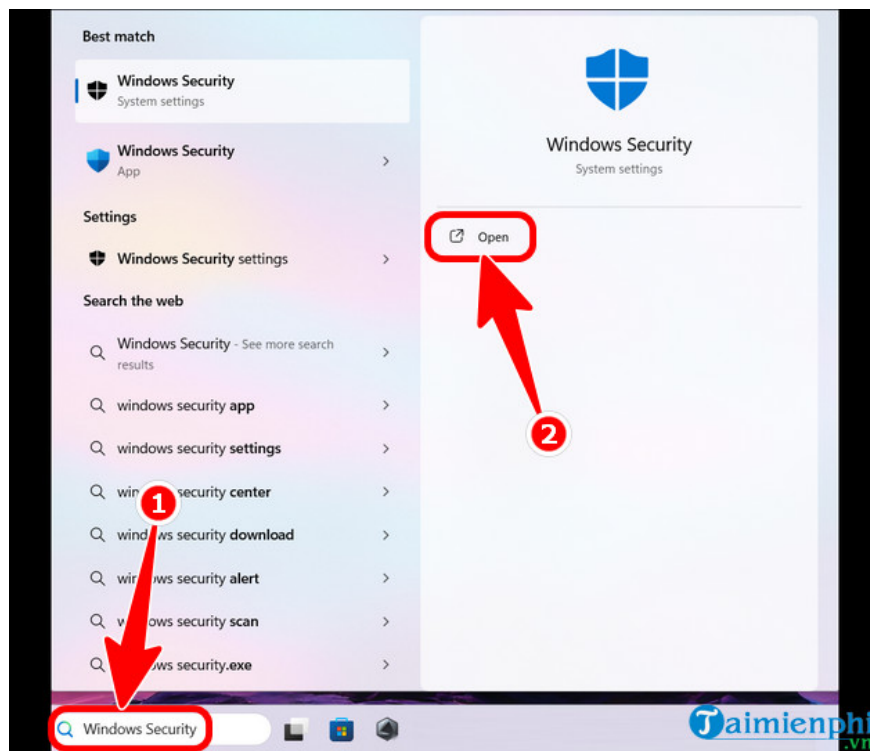

- Full access to the functions of Microsoft office tools such as Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook, Access,. to help you work more effectively.
- Enjoy regular Microsoft updates that improve stability, data safety, and user systems.
- Supports online storage services like OneDrive to access and share documents anytime, anywhere with an internet connection.
- Integrate collaboration tools such as Microsoft Teams, helping to organize online meetings, work with colleagues, and share information easily.
- Receive official support from Microsoft, including free updates and bug fixes, guaranteed to help users solve problems thoroughly, avoiding affecting work.

Activate Office 2016 license with CMD without Active key

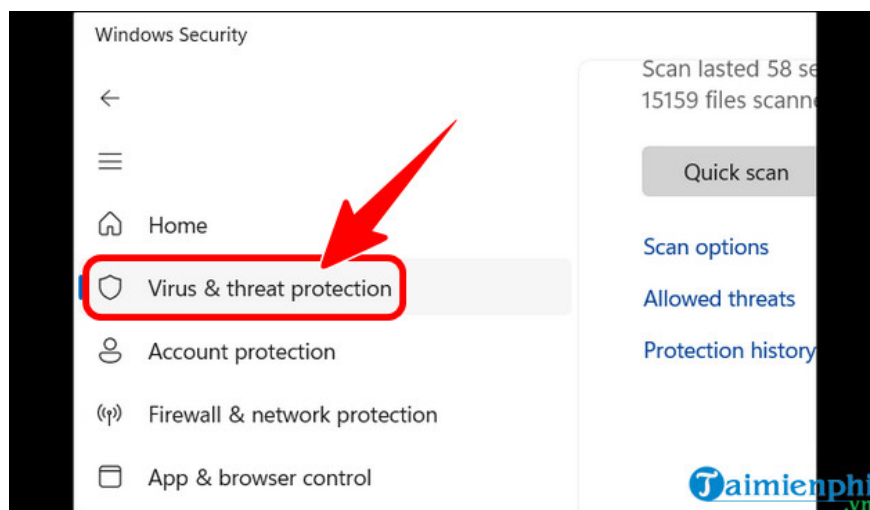

How to disable Windows Defender for Active Office 2016 using CMD

Before activating the copyright for the Office 2016 toolkit, users need to turn off active anti-virus software and Windows Defender Antivirus.

Step 1: Press the key combination Windows + S to open the search interface => enter Windows Security => click Open .

Step 2: Select Virus & threat protection .

- Find Virus & threat protection settings => press Manage settings .

Step 3: Turn off the Real-time protection button and disable Windows Defender.

Instructions for Active Office 2016 using Command Prompt

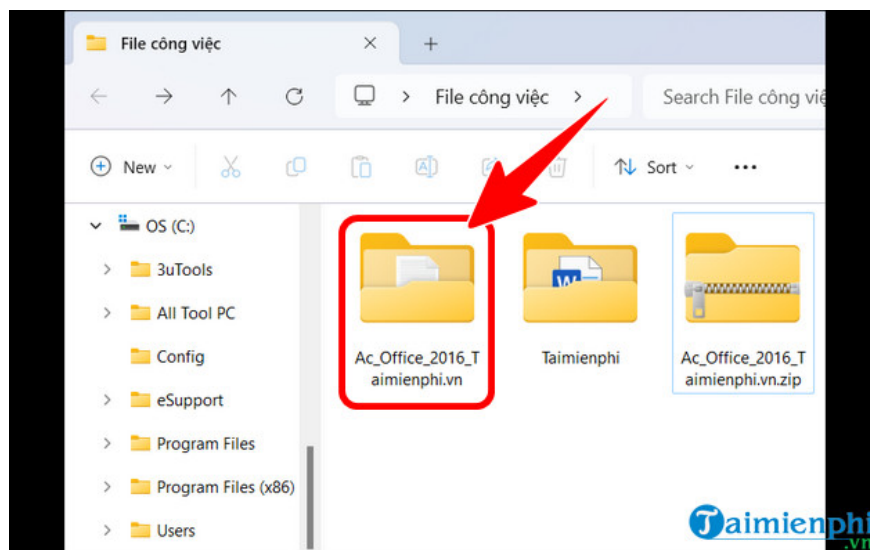

After successfully turning off Windows Defender, you can install Office 2016 and activate the license for the 2016 office suite using CMD through the steps below.

Step 1: Access the Active Office 2016 CMD file download link HERE .

Step 2: Unzip the downloaded file and enter the password " Taimienphi.vn " .

- Click to open the unzipped folder .

Step 3: Here you will see the Office 2016.cmd file as shown below, right click => Run as administrator .

- The system will automatically run and activate the license. If you see the words Product activation successful, it means you have successfully Active Office 2016.

Step 4: To make sure Office 2016 has been copyrighted or not, open any Office tool (Word, Excel, PowerPoint,..) => select Account => a notification of successful copyright activation will appear. displayed as below.

Is there any way to Active Office 2016 without using CMD?

Besides using Command Prompt to activate copyright, users can also Act with Office 2016 Key. However, to own these Key codes, you need to spend a small amount of money to buy them at reputable stores or on NPH Microsoft homepage.

So by using Active Office 2016 with CMD, you can access and use all the functions of this office toolkit in the most flexible and convenient way, helping to improve work efficiency.

You finished reading the article "How to Active Office 2016 using CMD without a license key" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.