

How to always open YouTube videos in theater mode

If you like watching YouTube videos in theater mode, you can set YouTube to always open the video in theater mode. The article below will guide you to always open YouTube videos in theater mode.

YouTube video theater mode will remove suggested videos in the sidebar, expanding the video viewing screen so users can focus on the content displayed in the video.

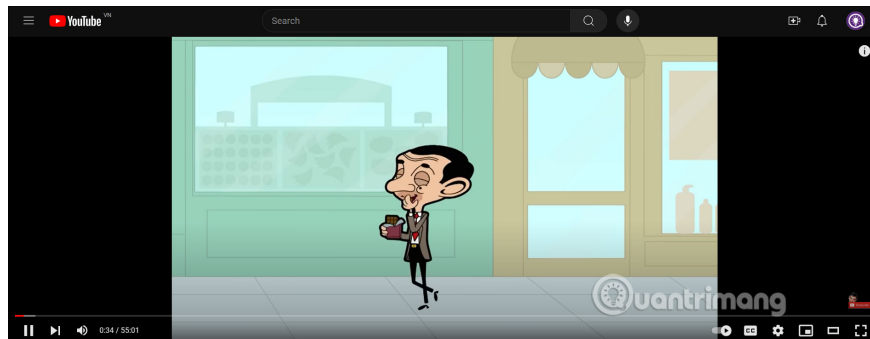

Instructions to always open YouTube videos in theater mode

Step 1:

You install the Theater Mode for YouTube utility for your browser according to the link below. The utility has installation links on many different browsers for you to use.

Step 2:

Next we go to YouTube and then open the video as usual. You will now see the YouTube video has opened in theater mode, which you do not need to activate manually.

If the user wants to return to the YouTube video viewing interface in normal mode, they just need to press the T key.

To switch YouTube videos to full screen mode, press the F key. To return to the previous mode, just press the F11 key.

You finished reading the article "How to always open YouTube videos in theater mode" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.

