

How to assemble the latest DTCL 10.1

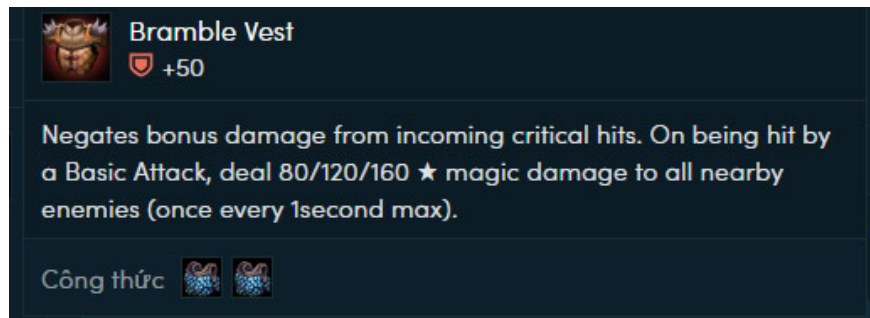

Here's how to pair the equipment in the latest update of the Arena of Truth 10.1, along with the specifications of these equipment.

The latest pairing of DTCL is probably the most searched keyword of gamers after the Arena of 10.1 version reaches gamers. And the reason that this keyword is searched the most is that Riot Games has brought a few new equipment to gamers in DTCL season 2.

In essence, these are equipment that has been replaced and no new single equipment. If you want to know what are the equipment and how to combine them, then check out the article below.

How to pair the latest Arena 10.1 map

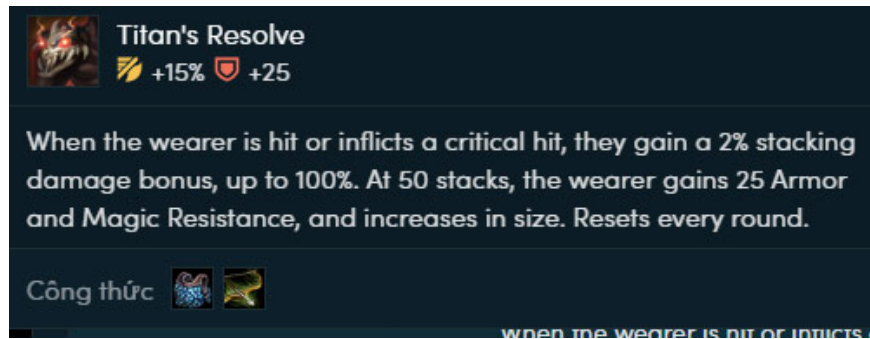

How to join the DTCL Capricorn Gown 10.1

The formula to combine Cape Gai Gai is the formula for combining Giap Gai in the previous version. You only need 2 Grid Armor to be able to combine into 1 Cloak of Gai.

Effect: Stops additional damage from critical attacks. When hit, usually deals 80/120/160 (1/2/3 stars) magic damage to all surrounding enemies (once per second).

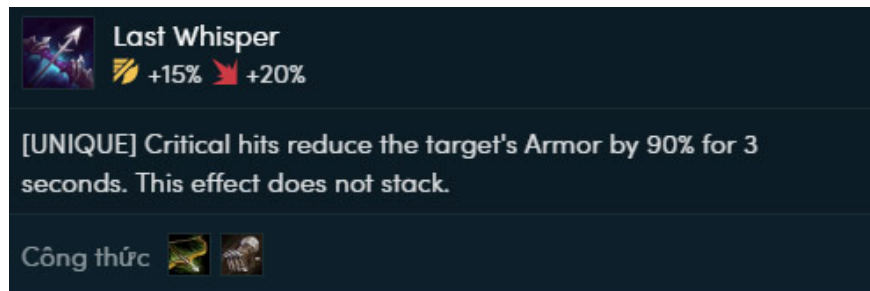

Titan's Resolve (Titan's Resolve)

Do you see the formula assembled into any equipment, it is the Ma Vu Song Kiem. It has now been replaced by Steadfast Resolve.

This item has the effect that when the owner takes damage or critically damages, they are increased by 2% damage, maximum 100%. When reaching 50 communists, the champion possesses an increase of 25 Magic Resist and Armor and also his size. Redo in every new round.

How to graft Blue Bow

The formula for grafting the Progressive Bow has now become the way to combine the Blue Bow. With a blue bow, what you get will be Critical Strike that reduces the target's armor by 90% for 3 seconds, not stacking.

That is the latest dtcl grafting formula currently, in addition to these new equipment, there are many equipment also changed parameters. You can see the DTCL 10.1 update details for details.
