1. 2 Shamans: Increases ability power by 20%
2. 4 Wizards: Increases 45% ability power
3. 6 Shamans: Increases 120% ability power

Advantages

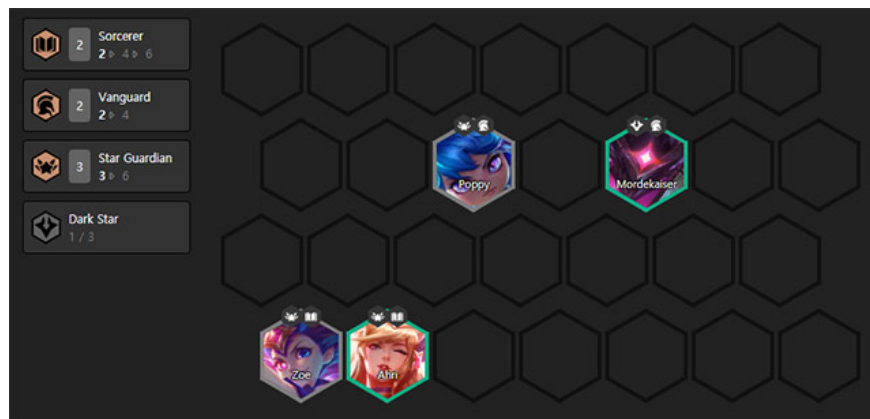

1. The synergy buff of VBTT has mana regeneration ability, so it combines with wizards with abundant energy and extremely good damage.
2. The team is both capable of controlling and resisting Neeko, Annie, Poppy and Zoe.
3. Easy to build up to 6 VBTT because there are no champions 5 gold.

Defect

1. The front line is easy to break if Neeko or Poppy fail to get 3 stars and no defense.
2. Need a lot of money and dignity to hyperroll champions with little money so they can carry the team later.
3. If you don't get 3 stars for Syndra or find Vel'Koz, the damage is only average compared to the Wizard team.

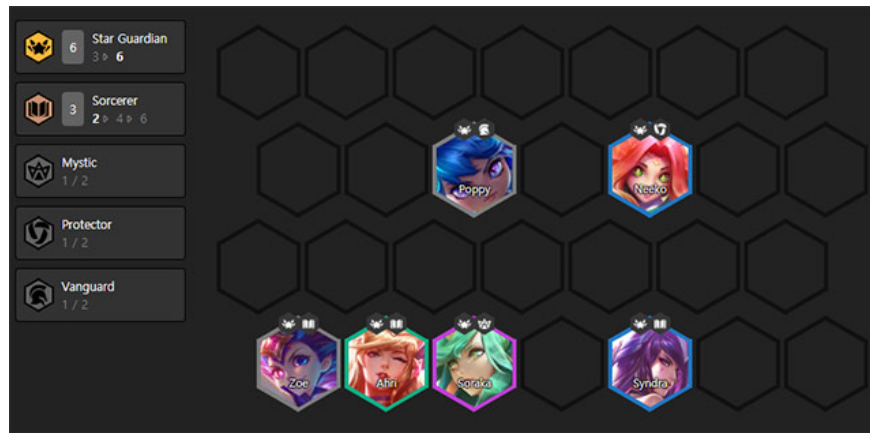

How to build the Star Guardian lineup at the beginning of the match

When you combine wizards and Star Guardian in the early game. You will find that winning the series is very easy. To do this, you need to earn Poppy, Zoe, Ahri or Syndra.

Or if you have not seen Syndra please put on Zoe and Ahri floors as wizards, resist yourself, let Poppy and Mordekaiser to the top for the team to have more resistance. That is enough to defend the backline champions to deal damage and destroy the enemy champion easily.

Mid game

In midgame, you need to gather 6 Star Guardians and that's enough to get you through most of the encounters and no problem if you don't encounter a team with Dragon Claw. Also, keep saving your money and upgrading the main generals in the team, this is very important if you want the team to survive the late game.

Endgame

You need to push to level 8 for your Star Guardian squad and recruit Lulu (or Karma) and Vel'Koz (or Lux) in the last two positions. This grants your team a buff of 4 Wizards, causing all champions to deal far greater damage.

Recruiting Lulu on the team will give you the Mysterious buff, which is great for teams that use heavy magic damage.

Suitable equipment for the team:

1. Syndra: Chalice of An Hue, Cadet Angel, Gang Bao Thach
2. Neeko: Warmod Blood Armor, Demon Book, Angel Armor.

Also if any champion is up to 3 stars you can build Zz'Rot Scout and throw it on that champion . There will be a source of 3000 health resist to help buy time and let the main damage generals continue to use their skills.

Position the Star Guards squad

It's easy to position this squad, Poppy and Neeko are always on the front lines to keep the enemies there. Meanwhile Syndra and Vel'Koz cast a continuous attack on the back to destroy the enemy.

Soraka can stand in the middle, in front of Syndra so she can fill the mana bar faster in case of an attack. Because Soraka can heal all her allies.

Conclude:

Definitely if you want to build a Wizard, you must have Star Guardian Guards come along. Star Guard's mana regeneration plus synergy buff will help your team to ult continuously if there is additional mana support equipment such as Cadet, Cadet Shojin or Chalice of Hue.
