

How to bypass the DTCL Mobile queue

If you are tired of the long queue for DTCL Mobile, you can refer to how to fix DTCL Mobile queue in this article.

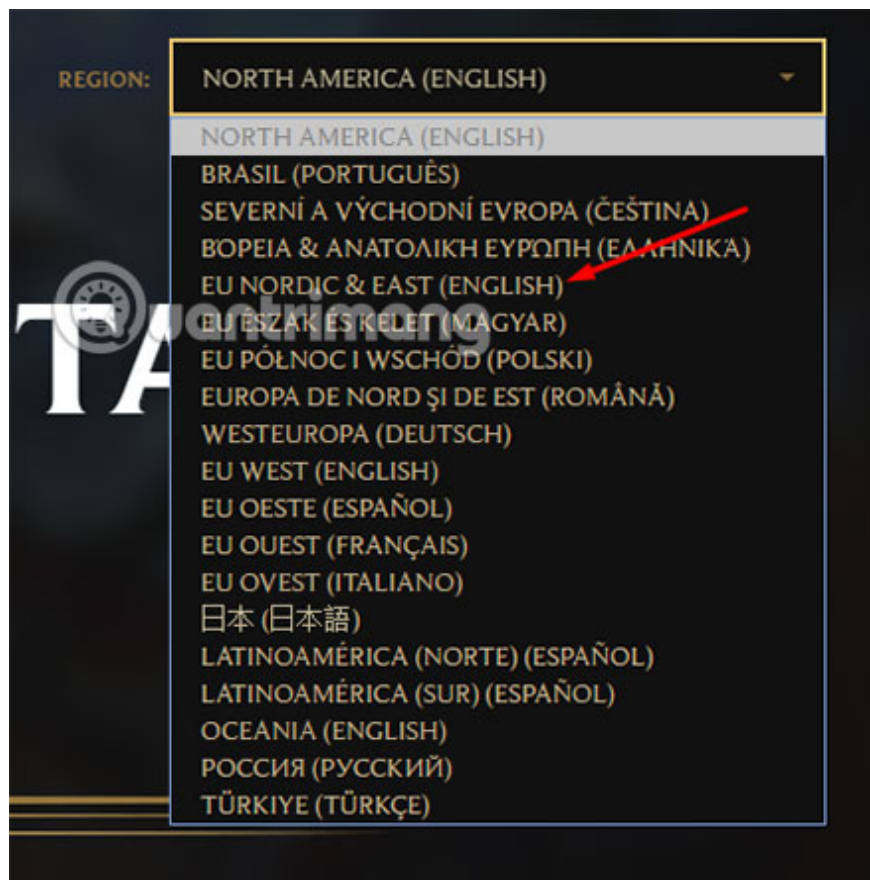

The number of participants in the current DTCL Mobile trial is very large worldwide. In just a short period of time the number of players has skyrocketed.

It is for this reason that many gamers have to wait for tens of minutes to be able to play. Caused many players feel discouraged because the number of players in the queue is up to dozens, even hundreds of thousands.

So to solve this queue problem, how do you do it. You can refer to some of the options below to skip the queue in the Arena of Truth Mobile.

Instructions for bypassing DTCL Mobile queues

Step 1: First, if you encounter a lot of queues, turn off the Mobile Truth Arena completely and then uninstall this DTCL Mobile version. Next, create an EU Nordic & East EU DTCL Mobile account if your previous account is not in this region.

After you have created the regional account as above, you proceed to reinstall DTCL Mobile and select the server according to the region where you have registered your account. Then log in to your account.

It is possible that DTCL Mobile is currently in beta testing, so the server is limited worldwide. Try the above method and see if the queue is skipped

In addition, DTCL Mobile still has some errors that make users feel dissatisfied. One of them is the error that stopped at the login screen for too long. But how to fix the standby screen DTCL Mobile is quite simple and does not have too many steps as how to fix the above error.

You finished reading the article "How to bypass the DTCL Mobile queue" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.

