

How to calculate high school graduation points and change university aspirations

Guiding students how to calculate points to consider high school graduation 2017.

After finishing the 2017 National High School Exam, the Ministry of Education and Training has announced the answers of the exam subjects, so that the candidates can easily compare with their lesson, which helps the candidates more or less. I have also calculated how much my exam results are. However, many students and parents are wondering about how to calculate grades for graduation, because this school year, the Ministry of Education and Training has changed many ways of calculating graduation scores compared to previous years.

1. How to calculate the high school graduation exam score 2017

In 2017, combine the results of the 4 graduation exam results (for High School Candidates) or 3 graduation exams (for Candidates for Continuing Education) with a grade point average of 12 years and a good score First, encourage (if any) to consider high school graduation concretely as follows:

- Thí sinh THPT:

$$KHTN = \frac{LÝ + HÒA + SINH}{3} \quad KHXH = \frac{SỬ + ĐỊA + GDCD}{3}$$

$$\text{ĐXTN} = \frac{\frac{TOÁN + VĂN + NGOẠI NGỮ + KHTN(KHXH)}{4} + \text{Điểm TB lớp 12}}{2} + \text{Điểm KK}$$

- Thí sinh Giáo dục thường xuyên:

$$KHTN = \frac{LÝ + HOA + SINH}{3} \quad KHXH = \frac{SỬ + ĐỊA}{2}$$

$$\text{ĐXTN} = \frac{\frac{TOÁN + VĂN + KHTN(KHXH)}{3} + \text{Điểm TB lớp 12}}{2} + \text{Điểm KK}$$

≥ 5 Đỗ, < 5 Trượt

Specifically, according to Article 37 of the National High School Examination Regulation and consideration of the recognition of high school graduation in 2017, graduation consideration scores include the points of candidates taking the exam to consider the recognition of high school graduation as prescribed in Clause 1, Article 3, This Regulation, priority points, incentives if available and grade points for the 12th grade year.

Candidates who have enough conditions to take the exam, are not disciplined during the high school time, all the tests and the exam subjects of the combination exam taken to get a grade for consideration of graduation are over

1.0 score according to the scale of 10 points and having TNC from 5.0 points or more is recognized as graduating from high school.

After they calculate the graduation exam score, they must have a score of 5 points or more before they graduate. If the graduation exam score below 5 will not be retested the second and the third time, it must wait for the next exam again.

2. Only change the desire to apply for admission once

In order to create conditions for candidates to enroll and choose the right field of study according to their wishes, in 2017, the Ministry of Education and Training has decided to allow candidates to adjust their university admission requirements later. knowing the national high school test scores.

According to the regulations of the Ministry of Education and Training, on 7.7 will announce the 2017 national high school test scores. After obtaining the national high school exam results, if you want to change your aspiration to apply for admission, each candidate is allowed to register for admission. by one of two methods: Online or by using a Voter to apply for admission.

Note : Candidates can only adjust once a time from July 15.

1. Adjust by online method: Candidates use their personal account and password has been granted to make adjustments to DKXT aspirations. Note the candidate: this method only accepts when the number of aspirations after adjustment is not greater than the number of initial registered aspirations in the DTT Voucher;
2. Adjusted with the DKXT aspirational Voucher (signing for admission): Candidates are adjusted to increase the number of aspirations in comparison with the number of initial registered aspirations in the DTT Voucher and must pay additional fee for the number. aspirations to increase as prescribed. Candidates must complete information on the DKXT aspirational Voucher and send it directly to the collection point so that computer staff can update the database of the Ministry of Education and Training's enrollment portal.

The Ministry of Education and Training also requires that the place to receive the documents must ask the candidate to check the results of the adjustment of the DKXT aspirations within the prescribed time and propose adjustment errors, if any. High schools open Internet computer rooms for students to adjust their online DKXT wishes.
