

How to change object color with Pixelcut AI Recolor

Pixelcut AI Recolor is a color correction website for objects, changing the color of images to the color you want with the color palette that the website provides.

The website uses AI technology to recognize the subject and current colors, thereby suggesting new colors for us to use for the subject. So you don't need complicated image editing software to change color, like changing object color in Photoshop. The following article will guide you to change the color of objects on Pixelcut AI Recolor.

Instructions to change subject color on Pixelcut AI Recolor

Step 1:

First, users access the Pixelcut AI Recolor website by following the link below.

`https://create.pixelcut.ai/recolor`

Step 2:

At the website interface, users click Upload a photo to upload the image to the website.

Picture 1 of How to change object color with Pixelcut AI Recolor

Step 3:

In the image editing interface, users looking at the left edge of the screen will see suggestions for choosing other colors for the object. You click on the color circle icons to change for the object.

Picture 2 of How to change object color with Pixelcut AI Recolor

We will see the object color changed according to the color you selected.

Picture 3 of How to change object color with Pixelcut AI Recolor

Step 4:

In addition, users can also adjust more brightness, saturation, . for photos by clicking the edit icon at the bottom. You will see the edit entries for us to change. The user moves the circle and looks at the image next to it to see if the adjustment is appropriate.

Picture 4 of How to change object color with Pixelcut AI Recolor

Step 5:

Finally, click the Download HD button to download the image after it has changed color.

Picture 5 of How to change object color with Pixelcut AI Recolor

You finished reading the article "How to change object color with Pixelcut AI Recolor" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.