

How to change the lock screen Win 10

How to change the lock screen Win 10. When we use Windows 10 with a login password, we will have a wallpaper for the lock screen. Lock screen wallpaper if you do not set, the Windows system will automatically use the images available on the system.

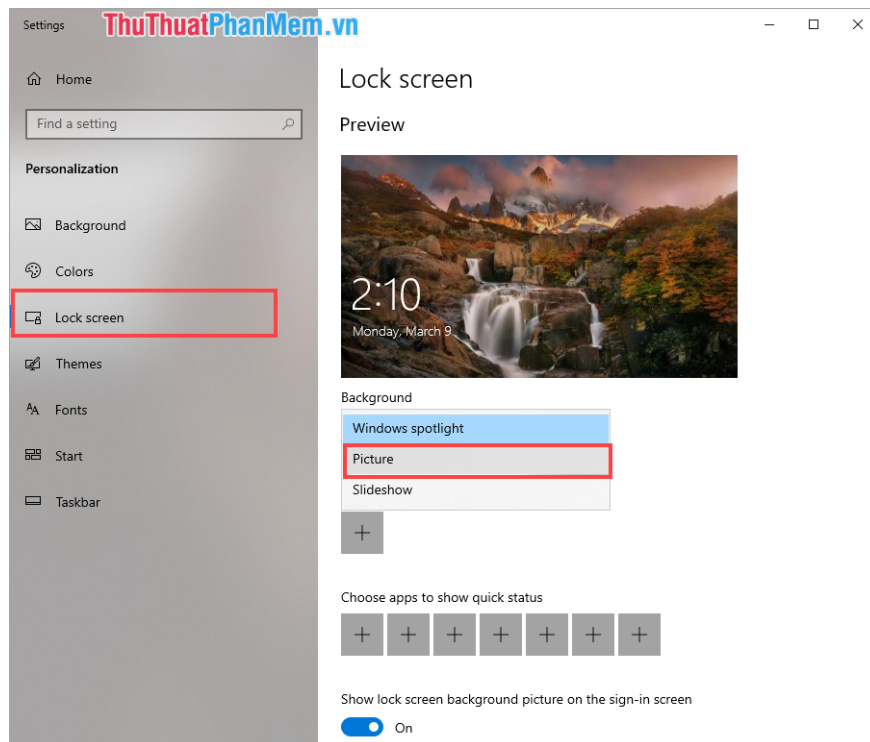

When we use Windows 10 with a login password, we have a wallpaper for the lock screen. Lock screen wallpaper if you do not set, the Windows system will automatically use the images available on the system. Not using a private lock screen will leave strangers unaware of whose device it is and no way to communicate when needed. In this article, Software Tips will guide you how to change the Win 10 lock screen.

Step 1: you right click on the desktop screen and select Personalize .

Step 2: Then, you choose Lock Screen to set the lock screen. At the Lock Screen window, switch the Background mode to Picture .

Step 3: Next, select Browse to select the image as the lock screen for the computer.

Step 4: You proceed to select the image to be set as the lock screen and click Choose Picture to select.

So you have conducted to change the lock screen on Windows 10 finished. Now you press Windows + L to lock the screen and see the new lock screen we just installed.

In this article, Software Tips have shown you how to change the lock screen on Windows 10. I wish you success!

You finished reading the article "How to change the lock screen Win 10" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.