The text will be styled as shown below.

5. How to create annotation borders when chatting on Messenger:

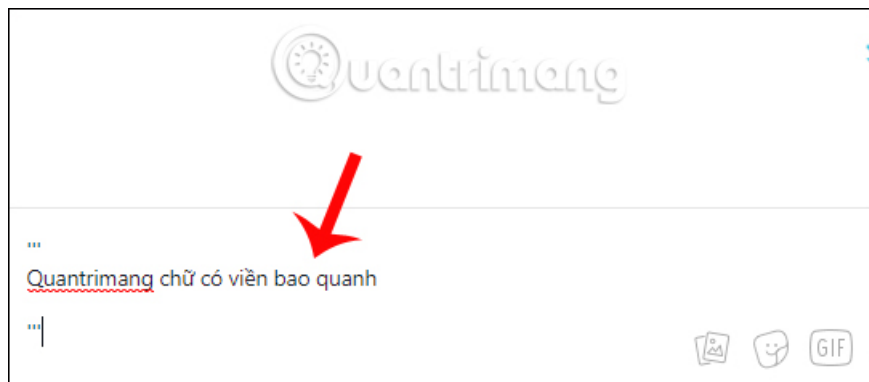

If you want to highlight something when chatting on Messenger, we can create borders around chat content, with custom border colors. However, when using borders, you cannot use styling style anymore.

The syntax used to create borders on Messenger is:

Chat content needs to create a border

The note must be in the upper and lower comma. So the chat content in the comma will be surrounded by the caption line as shown below.

The above is a guide for writing style, bold, italic, underlined words and borders on Messenger. So you have more ways to refresh chat content, or mark important information when chatting on Messenger.
