

How to check Internet package network FPT, VNPT, Viettel are using

Regularly checking Internet network packages FPT, VNPT, Viettel are using the following ways to make it easier for you to monitor Internet connection speed, and if you encounter any problems, you can contact immediately network operators to ensure that the line is always stable, without affecting your work or leisure time.

Knowing the internet service provider is using is very beneficial for users in using the service and know the benefits that the network is dedicated to the package you are using. Or in case you feel that your network speed is slower than normal, you need to check your current Internet package to find out why your Internet connection is affected, if you have a problem of eating out. capacity or not? And below, Network Administrator will guide you how to check internet network packages VNPT, FPT, Viettel are using.

1. How to know who is "using the temple" Wifi your home or not?
2. Check if network bandwidth is squeezed or cut
3. Internet speed test applications for smartphones

1. Check the Internet Internet package FPT is using

There are many ways to check the Internet package FPT is using, but these are two simple ways to get the fastest and most accurate results:

Method 1: Check the FPT package by visiting the member page

When the user registers to install the FPT package, the service side will send you account information to log in to the member page. Here, all information such as the package you are using, the speed of the connection, the time to pay the monthly service fee, . will be displayed.

Specifically, to access FPT's website, you should visit memberfpt.fpt.vn. After that, proceed to log in the username / pass provided earlier. This way you will check the Internet package you are using in FPT network easily and quickly.

Method 2: Check the FPT package by accessing your Modem system

Another way to help you check the Internet charges you are using for the FPT network is to access the Modem system, this way you do the following:

1. Access to address <http://192.168.1.1>.
2. Login with information with admin username, password: admin.
3. Select Data rate to check the package you are using.

2. Check that VNPT Internet network package is in use

For those who use VNPT, you also have 2 ways to check the Internet package you are using as follows:

Method 1:

Check the package, price through the account delivery form or the contract signed with VNPT network operator.

Method 2:

Call to Customer Care Center of VNPT network: (Province code) + 119 to be supported to check information about Internet packages you are using.

3. Check the Internet network package Viettel is using

To know which package you are using Viettel Internet network, which package is you using, you can do the following:

Method 1:

See the package, price printed on the acceptance report or the contract signed with Viettel network earlier.

Method 2:

You can check Internet package by contacting directly via Customer Service Center of Viettel network: 18008198, choose branch No. 3 to get support on fastest service procedures.

Note:

In addition to the ways of checking Internet packages for each FPT, VNPT and Viettel operators, as mentioned above, we also have a general test for all these operators by using SpeedTest . This network testing tool is completely free and gives quite accurate results about Internet package information as well as the network speed that the network provider is committed to true speed or not. You can refer to the tutorial on Internet speed test FPT, VNPT, Viettel without software to know how to implement details.

Thus, regularly checking Internet packages of FPT, VNPT, Viettel using these ways will make it easier for you to monitor Internet connection speed, and if you encounter any problems, please contact immediately with the network operators to ensure that the line is always stable, without affecting your work or leisure time.

See more:

1. Will network operators make money from WiFi?
2. How to check the phone is not deducted by the network?
3. How to check if 4G current position is available?

You finished reading the article "How to check Internet package network FPT, VNPT, Viettel are using" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.