

How to Contact Peter Weber

Peter Weber is the star of season 24 of the hit show The Bachelor. Although he's a fun-loving television personality, Peter Weber is actually pretty private in real life and only has an Instagram account as a social media presence. You can...

Method 1 of 2:

Using Instagram

Go to Peter Weber's Instagram page. Peter Weber manages his own Instagram account and posts to it regularly. His account name is @pilot_pete and you can type it into the search bar on the Instagram home screen to pull it up. Once you're there, select the 'Follow' option so you'll see his new posts and be notified whenever he updates his account.<sup>[1]</sup>

1. To go to Peter Weber's account on a web browser, visit https://www.instagram.com/pilot\_pete/?hl=en.

Comment on one of his posts to get his attention. Choose one of Peter Weber's photos or videos that he posted to his account and leave a comment on it. Tag his username by typing '@pilot_pete' so he gets notified about your comment. Leave a short and direct comment that mentions something relevant about him to get his attention, like flying or his time as a child actor. Invite him to send you a direct message to follow up.<sup>[2]</sup>

1. For example, you could say something like, 'Hi @pilot_pete! I'm a huge fan of yours from way back when you were on Days of Our Lives! I wanted to talk to you about something I think you'd be interested in. Shoot me a direct message when you get a chance, thanks!'
2. Peter Weber gets a lot of comments on his posts, so don't feel discouraged if he doesn't respond.

Warning: Don't include your personal information or phone number in a comment because other people can see it.

3.

Send him a message directly to his inbox so he can respond privately. On Peter Weber's Instagram page, there's an option labeled 'Message.' Select the option and write a note to him telling him who you are and why you're writing to him. Be sure to include contact information such as your email address or phone number so he can reach you if he wants to respond.<sup>[3]</sup>

1. Don't be pushy or rude or he's unlikely to read your whole message or respond to you.
2. Avoid sending multiple messages in a row so you don't appear desperate.

Method 2 of 2:

Contacting Peter through The Bachelor

1.

Write a letter to The Bachelor to be forwarded to the correct address. While you can't send a letter to Peter Weber directly, you can send one to show's casting office in California and ask that it be forwarded to Peter Weber's actual address. Draft a professional letter that clearly states who you are and why you're writing to him. Be sure to include a return address and contact information in case Peter Weber wants to reach out to you.<sup>[4]</sup>

1. Keep the letter to 1 or 2 pages so it's more likely to be forwarded.

Address the letter like this:

Peter Weber
? The Bachelor/Bachelorette Casting
11901 Santa Monica Blvd. #595
Los Angeles, CA 90025.

Send an email to The Bachelor so it can be screened and forwarded. Visit <https://bachelornation.com/contact> and fill out the message form to send an email to the staff of the show, who can read it and forward it if they think Peter Weber will be interested. Include your name and a current email so Peter Weber can reach out to you if he wants to. In the subject and message, be clear and direct about why you're trying to get in touch with Peter Weber.<sup>[5]</sup>

1. For example, you could start your message with, 'Please forward this note to Mr. Peter Weber.' Then, you could write your message to him.

Message The Bachelor's Facebook page as a last resort. While Peter Weber doesn't have a Facebook account that you can use to contact him, you can try to get in touch with him by sending a message to the The Bachelor's official Facebook page. Write a clear and concise message and ask that it be passed along to Peter Weber. Be sure to include your contact information.<sup>[6]</sup>

1. Visit The Bachelor's official Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/TheBachelor/>.
2. The social media managers that run the Facebook page may or may not forward your message along.
