

How to Convert an Image to an Icon for Free Online

Icons are small square images used for shortcuts on the desktop or favicons of the sites. Windows and any other OS provides standard set of icons, but you can create the unique one, taking any image and converting it to ICO format. There...

Method 1 of 5:

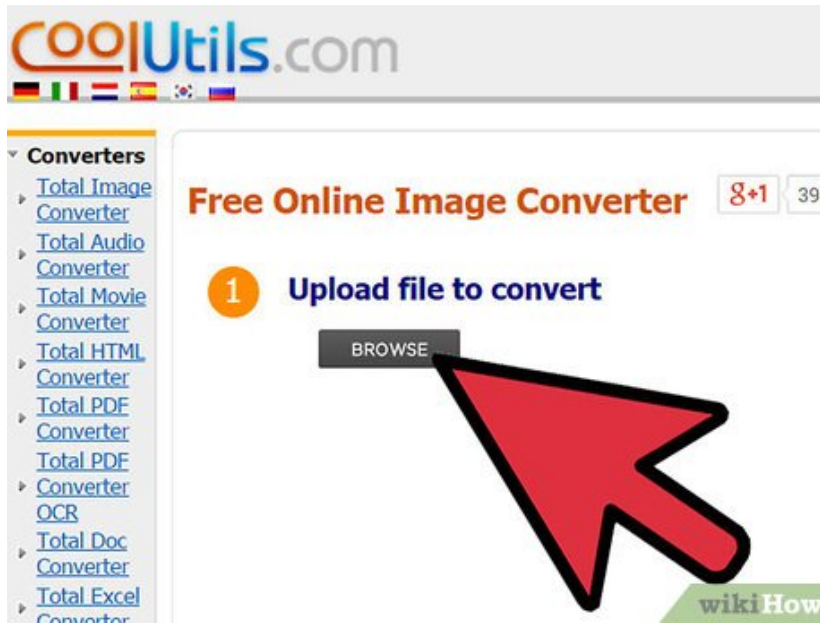

Online Image Converter

The screenshot shows the 'Free Online Image Converter' website interface. At the top, there are social media sharing buttons for Google+, Twitter, Facebook, and a share button. The main content is divided into two numbered steps:

- 1. Upload file to convert: This step includes a 'BROWSE' button to select a file.
- 2. Set convert options: This step shows a dropdown menu for 'Convert to' with options: JPEG (selected), BMP, TIFF, GIF, and ICO. Below this is an 'Options' section with 'Rotate: Auto'.

Go to Online Image Converter webpage using your web browser.

2.

Press BROWSE to upload your original image (no matter what format it is).

Set convert options

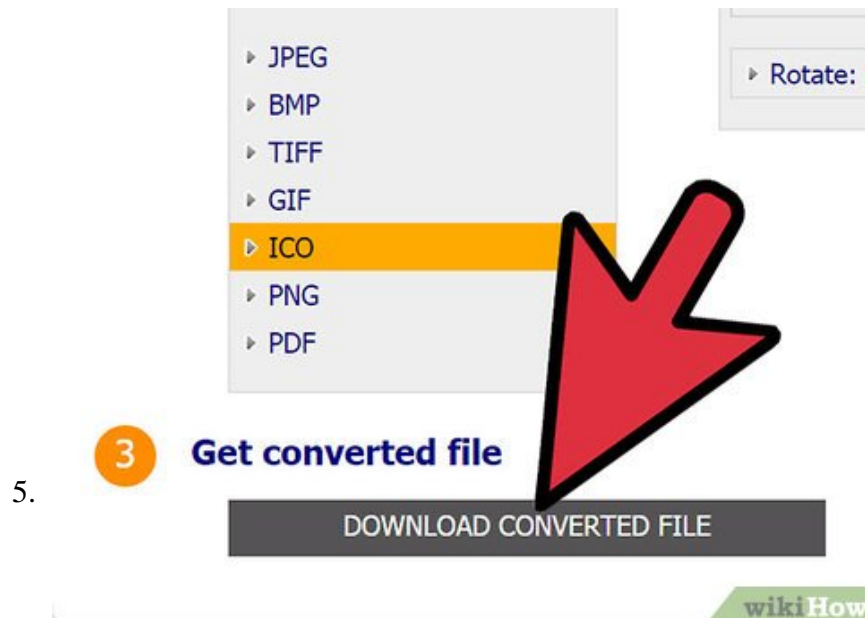

3.

Choose ICO format from the available list of supported file types.

Set convert options

Select Rotate mode in Options (optional).

Press DOWNLOAD CONVERTED FILE button to get the ICO copy.

Method 2 of 5:

Online-Convert

The screenshot shows the Online-Convert.com website. The top navigation bar includes links for Home, Blog, Advertise, FAQ, Developers, Donate, and Register. A left sidebar menu lists various conversion categories, with 'Image converter' expanded to show options like BMP, EPS, GIF, ICO, JPG, PNG, SVG, TGA, TIFF, and WBMP. The main content area is titled 'Online image converter' and features a breadcrumb trail: AdChoices > Converter > PDF Image > Convert WMV. Below this, there are sections for 'Convert Image Files', 'Start Download' (with a green arrow button), 'Free Download Converter', and 'Convert Files For Free'. A 'Convert an image to the BMP format' section is also visible, mentioning 'Convert your images to the BMP format with this free online image converter. You can convert from over 120 source formats. Read more...' and a 'wikiHow' logo.

Open Online-Convert page.

This screenshot is similar to the first one but highlights the 'Convert to ICO' option in the left sidebar menu with a large red arrow. The main content area shows the 'Online image converter' header, a breadcrumb trail (AdChoices > Converter > PDF Image), and an advertisement for 'Convert Image Files' from myimageconverter.com. Below the ad, there are sections for 'The Must Read News', 'Start Download', and 'Convert an image to the BMP format' with a 'wikiHow' logo.
