

How to convert avatar Facebook into different national flags

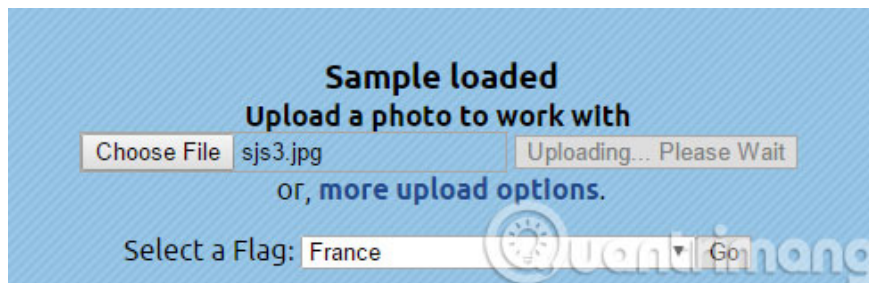

After the horrific terrorist attacks on Paris, the Facebook community simultaneously switched avatars to the French flag to express their deep sympathy for this tragedy. If you want to enjoy this beautiful gesture but don't know how to do it, please refer to our guide below.

After the horrific terrorist attacks on Paris, the Facebook community simultaneously switched avatars to the French flag to express their deep sympathy for this tragedy. If you want to enjoy this beautiful gesture but don't know how to do it, please refer to our guide below.

Step 1 : Access LunaPic homepage and select the desired flag (specifically here is France)

Step 2 : Upload your avatar

Step 3 : Here you have options such as using avatar or posting on Facebook wall

So, with just 3 simple steps, you changed your Facebook avatar to the national flag of any country you want.

1. Instructions to change the Facebook login interface
2. How to replace Facebook cover photo?
3. Tips to change the look for Facebook

Having fun!

You finished reading the article "How to convert avatar Facebook into different national flags" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.