

How to create a Google Chrome password manager shortcut

To make it easier for users to access the password manager on Chrome, it is possible to create an access shortcut, through the settings available on the browser.

Password Manager on Google Chrome helps users quickly access and manage passwords saved in the browser, thereby helping you manage passwords more securely. And to make it easier for users to access the password manager on Chrome, they can create an access shortcut, through the settings available on the browser. The following article will guide you to create a Google Chrome password manager shortcut.

Instructions for creating a Chrome password manager shortcut

Step 1:

In the Google Chrome browser, click on the 3 dots icon and then select Password manager in the displayed list.

Picture 1 of How to create a Google Chrome password manager shortcut

Step 2:

Switch to the new interface, click on the Settings item on the left side of the interface to set up this feature on the browser.

Picture 2 of How to create a Google Chrome password manager shortcut

Step 3:

Now display the settings for the password manager on the Google Chrome browser. Click on Add shortcut to proceed with the setup.

Picture 3 of How to create a Google Chrome password manager shortcut

You look at the right corner of the screen and you will see a request to install a password manager shortcut on Google Chrome, click Install .

Picture 4 of How to create a Google Chrome password manager shortcut

As a result, you will see the password manager shortcut on Google Chrome as shown below. Shortcut with password manager icon and password manager name. If you don't want to use this shortcut anymore, just delete it on the desktop.

Picture 5 of How to create a Google Chrome password manager shortcut

You finished reading the article "How to create a Google Chrome password manager shortcut" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
