

How to Create a New Club on Fanpop

Fanpop is an amazing and fun site where you can support your favourite series or other and meet amazing people that like the same stuff as you. This article will show you how to make a new club on Fanpop for anything you like and want to...

Method 1 of 2:

Make a New Club on Fanpop

Find a topic to make into a club. It cannot be a duplicate, about hate, self-promotional, or made for spam. So pick a genuine topic and make sure you have interest in it. Search the site for the club before making it, as this will help you see what sites are available to make and what ones already exist.

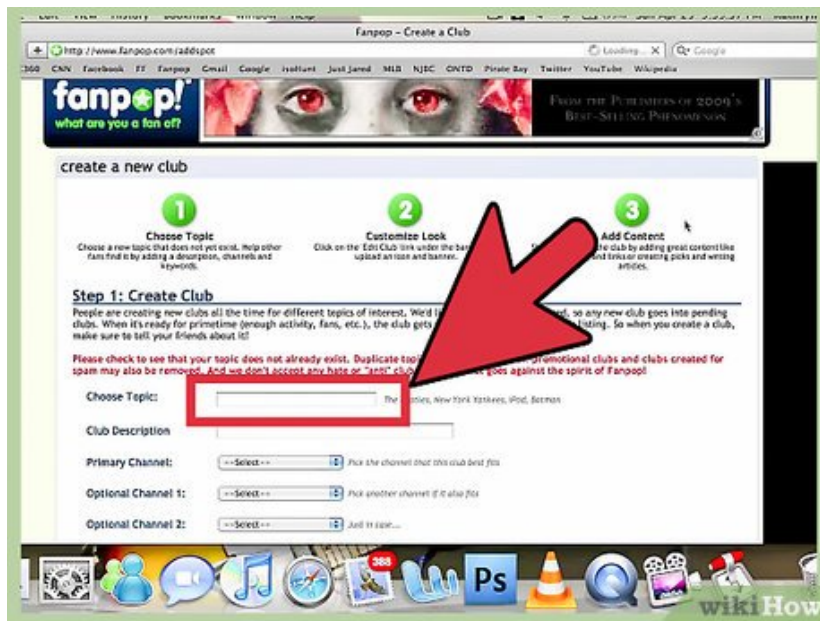

2.

Go to the main page of Fanpop and click on Create a New Club. The button when clicked will take you to a new page. You have to be logged in to make a club.

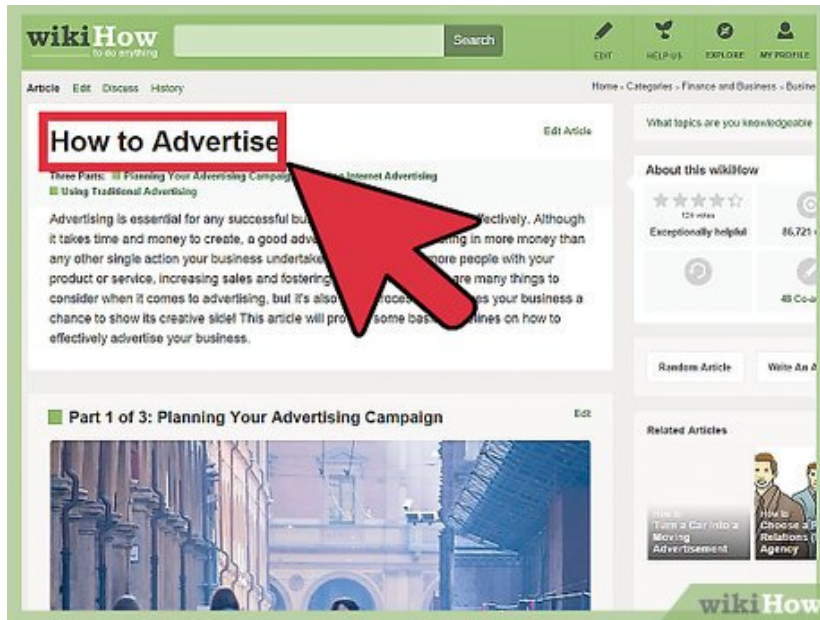

1. The "Create a New Club" button will look like the above image.

3.

Fill out the form for making a new club. After this you will get taken to a different page that is your new club. You can start contributing to your club.

1. The first contributions you will be prompted to make are making a banner, and adding the first content to your site.

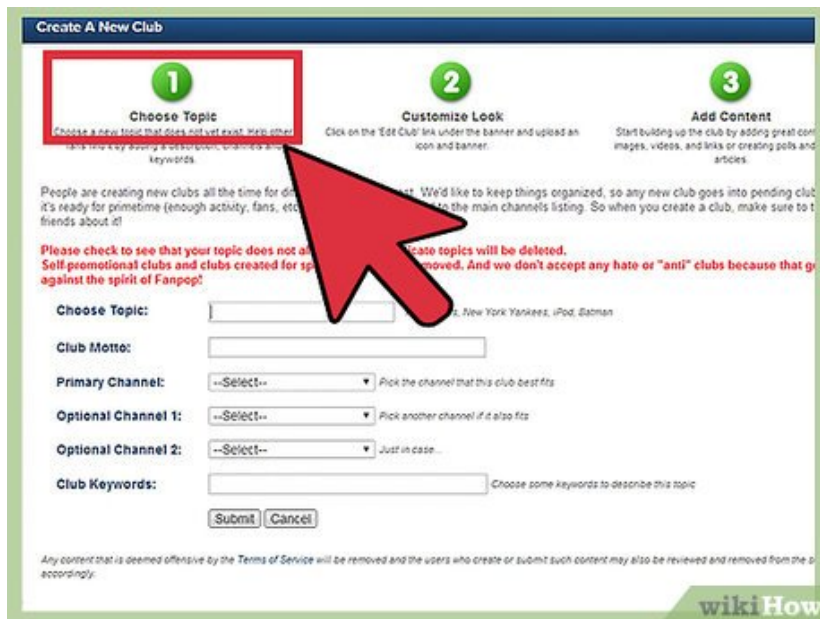

4.

Advertise your site and have fun. Good Luck!

Method 2 of 2:

Fill out the Topic form on Fanpop

This portion of the article will show you how to fill out the form for making a new site on Fanpop.com. This starts from step 2 of "Make a New Club on Fanpop".

1.

Go to the Create New Club form. Look at the form and realize the best ways to fill it out.

create a new club

1 Choose Topic
Choose a new topic that does not yet exist. Help other fans find it by adding a description, channels and keywords.

2 Customize Look
Click on the Edit Club link under the banner and upload an icon and banner.

3 Add Content
Start building up the club by adding images, videos, and links or creating articles.

Step 1: Create Club

People are creating new clubs all the time for different topics of interest. We'd like to keep things organized, so any new club goes to the main channels listing. When it's ready for primetime (enough activity, fans, etc.), the club gets promoted to the main channels listing. So when you make sure to tell your friends about it!

Please check to see that your topic does not already exist. Duplicate topics will be deleted. Self-promotional clubs and clubs spam may also be removed. And we don't accept any hate or "anti" clubs because that goes against the spirit of Fanpop!

Choose Topic: The Beatles, New York Yankees, iPod, Batman

Club Description:

Primary Channel: Pick the channel that this club best fits

Optional Channel 1: Pick another channel if it also fits

Optional Channel 2: Just in case...

Club Keywords: Choose some keywords to describe this topic

wikiHow

2.

Pick a Topic and Motto. Motto's can be anything you want. They should explain the topic and introduce users to the site. They can also be humorous, serious, etc.

create a new club

1 Choose Topic
Choose a new topic that does not yet exist. Help other fans find it by adding a description, channels and keywords.

2 Customize Look
Click on the Edit Club link under the banner and upload an icon and banner.

3 Add Content
Start building up the club by adding images, videos, and links or creating articles.

Step 1: Create Club

People are creating new clubs all the time for different topics of interest. We'd like to keep things organized, so any new club goes to the main channels listing. When it's ready for primetime (enough activity, fans, etc.), the club gets promoted to the main channels listing. So when you make sure to tell your friends about it!

Please check to see that your topic does not already exist. Duplicate topics will be deleted. Self-promotional clubs and clubs spam may also be removed. And we don't accept any hate or "anti" clubs because that goes against the spirit of Fanpop!

Choose Topic: The Beatles, New York Yankees, iPod, Batman

Club Description:

Primary Channel: Pick the channel that this club best fits

Optional Channel 1: Pick another channel if it also fits

Optional Channel 2: Just in case...

Club Keywords: Choose some keywords to describe this topic

wikiHow

3.

Pick the channels your site fits the best in. You can pick three of them. Choose carefully and choose the best one at first. Do your best as the club doesn't always fit perfectly into a channel.

create a new club

1

Choose Topic

Choose a new topic that does not yet exist. Help other fans find it by adding a description, channels and keywords.

2

Customize Look

Click on the "Edit Club" link under the banner and upload an icon and banner.

3

Add Content

Start building up the club by adding images, videos, and links or creating articles.

Step 1: Create Club

People are creating new clubs all the time for different topics of interest. We'd like to keep things organized, so any new club goes clubs. When it's ready for primetime (enough activity, fans, etc.), the club gets promoted to the main channels listing. So when you make sure to tell your friends about it!

Please check to see that your topic does not already exist. Duplicate topics will be deleted. Self-promotional clubs and clubs spam may also be removed. And we don't accept any hate or "anti" clubs because that goes against the spirit of Fanpop!

Choose Topic: The Beatles, New York Yankees, iPod, Batman

Club Description:

Primary Channel: --Select-- Pick the channel that this club best fits

Optional Channel 1: --Select-- Pick another channel

Optional Channel 2: --Select-- Just in case...

Club Keywords: Choose some keywords to describe this topic

wikiHow

4.

Now pick Keywords. They should explain the club and be description words. You should have at least over 6, don't worry if you have more than that.

create a new club

1

Choose Topic

Choose a new topic that does not yet exist. Help other fans find it by adding a description, channels and keywords.

2

Customize Look

Click on the "Edit Club" link under the banner and upload an icon and banner.

3

Add Content

Start building up the club by adding images, videos, and links or creating articles.

Step 1: Create Club

People are creating new clubs all the time for different topics of interest. We'd like to keep things organized, so any new club goes clubs. When it's ready for primetime (enough activity, fans, etc.), the club gets promoted to the main channels listing. So when you make sure to tell your friends about it!

Please check to see that your topic does not already exist. Duplicate topics will be deleted. Self-promotional clubs and clubs spam may also be removed. And we don't accept any hate or "anti" clubs because that goes against the spirit of Fanpop!

Choose Topic: The Beatles, New York Yankees, iPod, Batman

Club Description:

Primary Channel: --Select-- Pick the channel that this club best fits

Optional Channel 1: --Select-- Pick another channel

Optional Channel 2: --Select-- Just in case...

Club Keywords: Choose some keywords to describe this topic

wikiHow

5.

Press submit as you completed the form. Submit should be directly underneath the form. Now you will move on to your completed site and more prompts will be made to you about from there.

You finished reading the article "How to Create a New Club on Fanpop" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.