

How to create a vote on Viber

On Viber has updated the features to create poll poll similar to Facebook or Zalo.

In order to help chat group members to make more positive votes, many chat apps like Zalo have added the option to vote on comments. You can create polls on Zalo, create poll polls on Facebook and now create polls on Viber.

The Viber version on the computer when updated to the new version adds the ability to create poll polls right in the message input frame. For large Viber chat groups, creating polls will get results right away, but the members don't need to chat too much. The following article will guide you how to create a poll on Viber.

Step 3:

Finally click the Create button below to create a voting table.

Step 4:

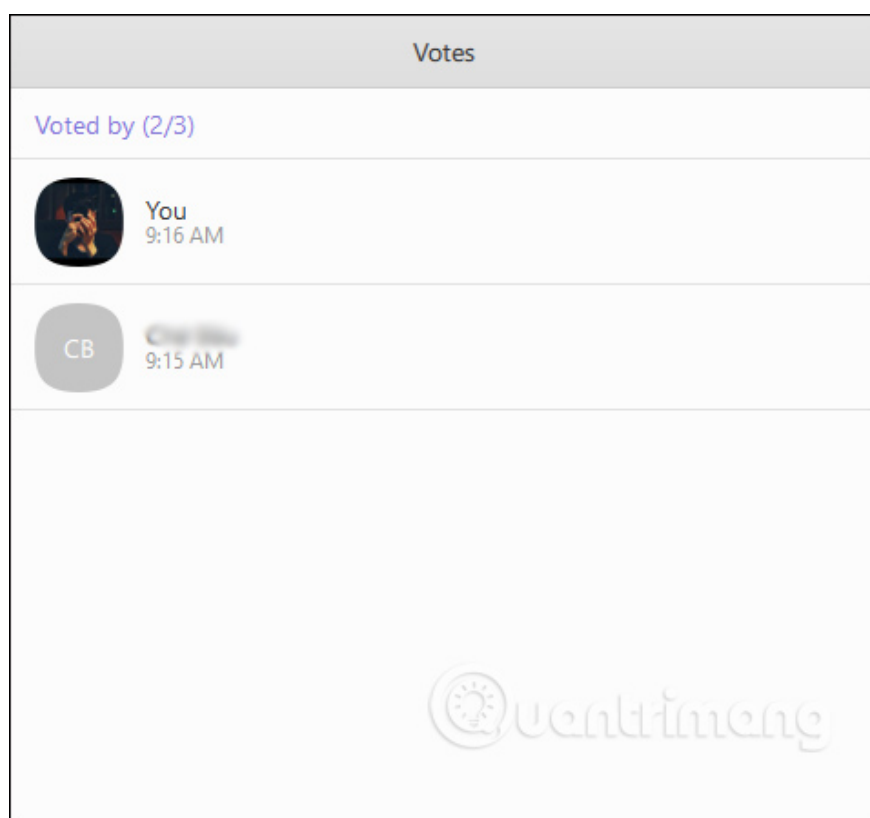

The voting table will be displayed in the Viber chat group interface as shown below. The team members will click on the heart next to the plan you want to select.

Each option will display the number of voters , as well as the percentage of votes for that option.

Also when we click on the option will display a list of members who have voted for that plan.

The steps for creating comments on Viber are very simple, similar to when you create on other chat services. Through voting results, members of Viber chat group will be easier to solve the problem.
