

How to create an application folder on Android

Creating an app folder on Android helps you group apps with the same theme together for easy access when needed. We can create many different application folders on Android unlimitedly.

This also helps to make the Android phone screen more compact, not letting too many applications overflow the screen. The following article will guide you to create an application folder on Android.

How to create an Android app folder

Step 1:

First we will find the applications that you want to group them into an application folder. Then you just need to move the application icon to another application to create an application folder.

Picture 1 of How to create an application folder on Android

Picture 2 of How to create an application folder on Android

Step 2:

Now you will see the application folder created as shown below.

Picture 3 of How to create an application folder on Android

We continue to create more folder applications on the phone according to the operation as above.

Picture 4 of How to create an application folder on Android

Step 3:

Next click on the application folder to name this folder. Click on the Unnamed folder line to enter a name for the application folder. After entering the name for the folder, click outside to save the folder name.

Picture 5 of How to create an application folder on Android

Picture 6 of How to create an application folder on Android

We continue to perform the above operation with another application folder to name.

Picture 7 of How to create an application folder on Android

Step 4:

In case you want to rename the application folder , click on the current folder name and then enter a new name for the application folder .

Picture 8 of How to create an application folder on Android

Picture 9 of How to create an application folder on Android

Step 5:

To take the application out of the application folder , you just need to long press on the application icon and then move it outside the screen .

Picture 10 of How to create an application folder on Android

If you want to delete the application folder on Android , just move the folder to Delete. The folder will then disappear, including the applications that are no longer visible in the folder.

Picture 11 of How to create an application folder on Android

You finished reading the article "How to create an application folder on Android" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.