

How to create emoji posters for your phone number on iPhone

In addition to choosing photos in the album as contact photos on iPhone, we can choose emoji as contact photos on iPhone. The following article will guide you to create contact emoji images on iPhone.

On iOS 17, there is a feature to create poster images for contacts on iPhone including your contact number and the other's. This contact photo will show up when making a FaceTime call on iPhone. And in addition to choosing photos in the album as contact photos on iPhone, we can choose emoji as contact photos on iPhone. The following article will guide you to create contact emoji images on iPhone.

Instructions for creating emoji poster images for iPhone contacts

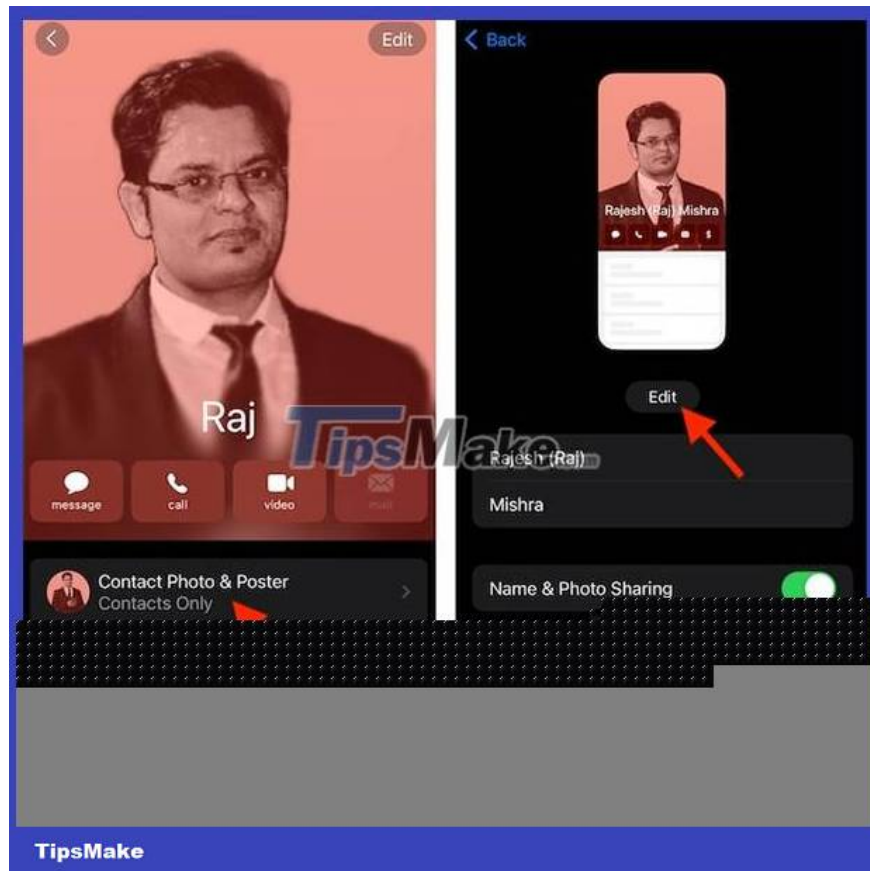

Step 1:

First, click on the Contacts application on your phone, then click on the Contact card . Now click on your contact number.

Step 2:

Click Contact Photo & Poster and then click Edit to edit your contact photo again.

Step 3:

Now users click on the plus icon below to create a new contact photo on iPhone. Next, click on the Memoji icon below to adjust.

Step 4:

Display emojis to choose from for your contact poster image. You click on the emoji you want and then click on the circle icon below to change the background color for the contact poster image on iPhone.

Step 5:

Once you have selected a satisfactory emoji image for your contact, click Continue to continue. Then we click Update to change the poster for the contact on your iPhone.

You finished reading the article "How to create emoji posters for your phone number on iPhone" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.