

How to create links for content in Google Docs

You can completely create links for any specific content in Docs, such as creating links for bookmarks in Google Docs, creating links for Headers in Google Docs,....

To insert a link in Google Docs is very simple and is a basic operation when you work with Docs. And you can completely create links for any specific content in Docs, such as creating links for bookmarks in Google Docs, creating links for Headers in Google Docs,. With this link, you can easily share content. content for others for quick access. The following article will guide you to create links for specific content in Google Docs.

Create links to content in Docs with bookmarks

Bookmarks in Google Docs have the role of saving or highlighting important content in the document. And you can also use bookmarks to create links to certain content.

Step 1:

First of all we need to create bookmarks for the content. You click on the content to create a bookmark or need a link to, then click Insert in the toolbar and then select Bookmarks in the displayed list.

Step 2:

Then at the content display the bookmark icon as shown below. When you click on the content you will see a copy icon to copy the link to bookmark this content. You can send this bookmark link to others so they can immediately access the bookmark on Google Docs.

How to create content links for bookmarks in Docs

In addition to creating content links with bookmarks, we can create content links to bookmarks that you have created in Google Docs

Step 1:

First, at the content that you want to link to the bookmarked content, we highlight and then right-click and select Insert link.

Step 2:

In the list that displays the content linked to, click Title and bookmark below the option.

You will then see the bookmark in the list to click to select the link to.

The resulting content was linked to a bookmark in a Google Docs document.

How to create a link to Heading in Google Docs

Step 1:

At the content you want to link to Heading in Google Docs, we highlight the content and then right-click and select Insert link . Next, select the Title and bookmark shown below.

Step 2:

Then display a lot of existing headings in the Docs document, we click on the heading you want to link to.

Then when you click on the content you have selected, it will display the heading in the document. We can copy this content link to send to others and they will be quickly moved to that heading in the document.

You finished reading the article "How to create links for content in Google Docs" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.