

How to create notice to delete notes on iPhone

The note application on iPhone by default has no notification when pressing delete, sometimes causing you to delete the wrong content.

The notes application on the phone is now extremely convenient, with many useful functions attached. The applications available in the device also help you save the content that needs attention. However the Notes app on iPhone by default has no notification when pressing delete. This will sometimes cause you to accidentally delete an important note. If so, we can install NotesConfirmToDelete tweak on iPhone. This tweak will create a notification when you press delete note on iPhone. The following article will show you how to create a notice to delete notes on iPhone.

Instructions for creating notice to delete notes on iPhone

Step 1:

You access Cydia on iPhone and then click on the Source tab. Then enter the repo below and click Add to install in Cydia.

1. <https://repo.packix.com/>

Next, click the Search tab and enter the keyword NotesConfirmToDelete to search for tweak then proceed with the installation. Tweaking can be installed on iOS 10 on jailbreak.

Step 2:

After the installation is complete, it will automatically be applied to the Notes application, but we do not need to adjust any additional content.

Now when you press delete note on iPhone will display Hold up notification! as shown below. We will be warned whether we want to delete this note. If you are sure you want to delete it, then click Delete and then delete the note on the iPhone.
