

How to decorate candles in the house

On special occasions, you will want to decorate candles to create a fanciful, romantic space for your home.

On special occasions, you will want to decorate candles to create a fanciful, romantic space for your home. There are creative ways to decorate candles such as placing them on the stairs, on the windowsill or creating your own styles according to your style, .

first

Decorate candles along the stairs

Decorate candles along the stairs

Light up each stair with shimmering candles. You can also place candles on glass shelves or decorate with leaves or small bows.

2

Decorate candles in paper cups

Decorate candles in paper cups

Use paper cups to hold small candles that create lantern-like light. The inside of the cup can be covered with wax to avoid catching fire.

3

Decorate candles in glass bottles

Decorate candles in glass bottles

Choose vases or jars with fancy shapes and different colors. Place the long candles inside. It will create a magical shimmering light.

4

Decorate candles on the windowsill

Decorate candles on the windowsill

You can "plant" the candles in a potted soil or a flower bed by the window. The candles will be like flowers blooming brightly.

5

Decorate with DIY candle cups

Decorate with DIY candle cups

You can make your own candle mugs out of glass or beer cans. Draw funny patterns on the sides of the cup. Fill the candles with different scents of different colors and don't forget to place them in the center of the wick. You will have candles of many interesting shapes.

You finished reading the article "How to decorate candles in the house" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.