Stickers are the most used content in hilarious conversations. You often use it to make conversations more interesting. However, sometimes your friends accidentally (or intentionally) insert stickers on a message, making it more difficult to read. Luckily, you can follow the following tips to remove those stickers from iMessages and read messages on your iPhone as usual.

Interestingly, you do not need to delete both the sticker set or the sticker application, you just need to delete the sticker that prevents you from reading the message.

1. How to use iMessages on Windows computers

How to remove stickers from the messaging application

Step 1 . Open the Messages application on your iOS device.

Step 2 . Open the conversation with the stickers you want to delete.

Step 3 . Touch and hold the sticker you want to delete.

Step 4 . Touch Sticker Details on the menu.

Step 5 . Quickly swipe the sticker information from right to left to delete them.

Alternatively, on the sticker information section, swipe the screen to the left to display the Delete button. Then, click Delete to delete the sticker.
