

How to display lyrics automatically on YouTube?

When watching music videos on YouTube, you want to hum each melody or learn English via YouTube songs, then use the subtitles feature available on the video player. However, with videos that do not include subtitles, how to do?

YouTube is now considered to be the largest video viewing channel worldwide. Users can search all the videos you need, or download YouTube videos to your computer with the fastest speed. To meet the needs of people all over the world when watching videos on YouTube, Captions captions have been enabled on YouTube videos. However, not every video has subtitles or unlike the subtitles you want to watch.

How to solve this problem is extremely simple when we install the Lyrics Here by Rob W utility on the web browser, with the utility of displaying the lyrics attached to any video. This utility will automatically scan the lyrics on reputable websites and then display the lyrics right next to YouTube videos.
