

How to download the latest Teamviewer 14 for new users

- Teamviewer is a useful software to support connecting remote computers, easily controlling and sharing information. Techz will guide you in detail how to install Teamviewer 14.

What is TeamViewer?

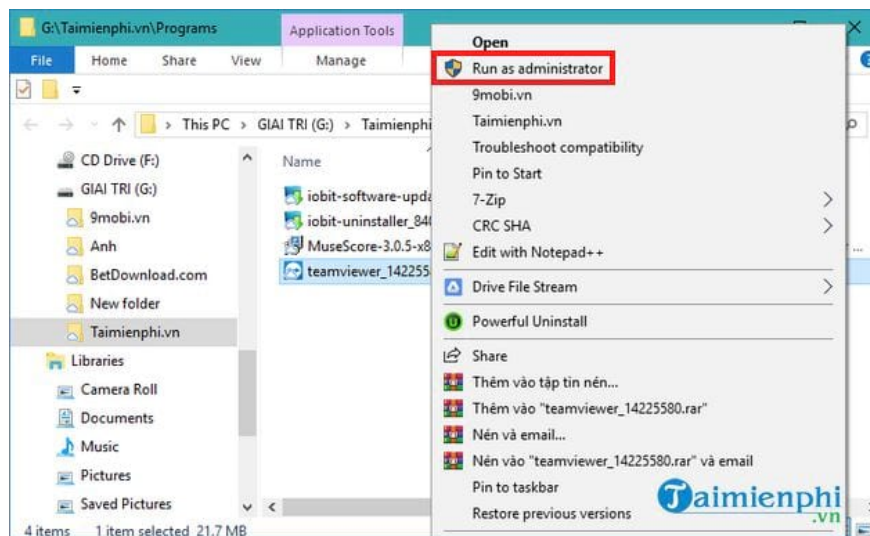

TeamViewer is a remote management and control software, and you can access to control other people's computers in a very remote location very easily via the internet, installing TeamViewer takes little space and Easy to use with useful features, good support for users.

How to download teamvier

Step 1: Users download Teamviewer 14 version to the computer

<https://www.teamviewer.com/>

Step 2: You run the Teamview installation file, you can double-click to run it or right-click and select Run as administrator to run with Admin privileges.

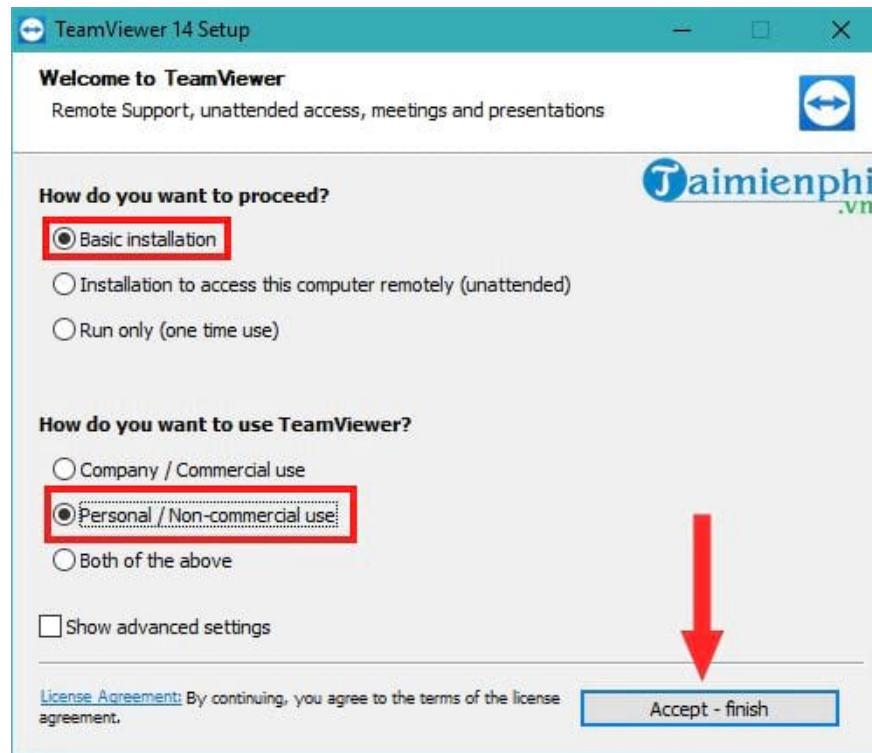

Step 3: The installation interface of Teamviewer appears, choose:

- Select Basic installation under How do you want to proceed?

- Select Personal / Non-commercial use under How do you want to use Teamviewer? To use this application for free.

Then, click Accept - Finish.

You can also tick Show advanced settings to display more and further refine the installation if you want -> click Finish

After you select Finish , the software will automatically install and create a shortcut to the desktop.

Step 4: The process of installing TeamViewer is successful, the software will automatically display the main interface of TeamViewer and you enter other people's ID and password to access the connection with that computer or you can use ID and password. display on the software and then share to others so that others can connect to their remote computers.

You finished reading the article "How to download the latest Teamviewer 14 for new users" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
