Copper is one of the most important resources in RuneScape Dragonwilds that you can mine to increase your power level.

Surviving in survival games always requires good gear and rightly so, you will need more resources to get it. Copper is one of the most important resources in RuneScape Dragonwilds that you can mine to increase your power level .

So, if you want to know how to increase your chances of survival, the article below will show you how to earn copper in RuneScape Dragonwilds .

Copper Locations in RuneScape Dragonwilds

You can get copper from copper mines in RuneScape Dragonwilds. The best place to find them is the Fractured Plains. Once you are in the Fractured Plains, head west, closer to the broken bridge. This area is where you can find a lot of copper ore. You should build a lodestone nearby for fast travel. Use the image attached below to easily travel across the plains.

If you are new to RuneScape Dragonwilds, you will need at least level 2 power for your weapon or armor. Furthermore, you will have to cross the Whispering Swamp to get there, so make sure you are smart enough to avoid enemies.

In the Fractured Plains, take advantage of the higher terrain to avoid high-level enemies. When in higher terrain, use your crafted bow to shoot down goblins or wolves.

How to mine copper in RuneScape Dragonwilds

To get copper from copper ore, you need to mine it in RuneScape Dragonwilds. To do that, you will need a bone pickaxe. Here is how to craft a bone pickaxe:

1. First, find a bone to unlock the Bone Pickaxe crafting recipe.
2. Then, interact with a crafting table and click on the item.
3. Now, click the Craft button to craft a pickaxe.
4. You will need 8 bones, 6 ash logs and 4 pieces of leather to get a pickaxe.

Once you have a Bone Pickaxe, you can mine copper. Just mine and collect all of it. You can also speed up your mining by using the Rocksplosion spell in RuneScape Dragonwolds to get copper. You will need 15x Earth Rune, 5x Fire Rune, and a Pickaxe to use this spell. Remember, you must have a Bone Pickaxe in your inventory for this spell to work on the ore mine.
