

How to edit the Metadata of the image file, change the image information

An ordinary image file not only contains image content, but they also contain a lot of data related to them such as: photographer's name, shooting parameters, image structure ...

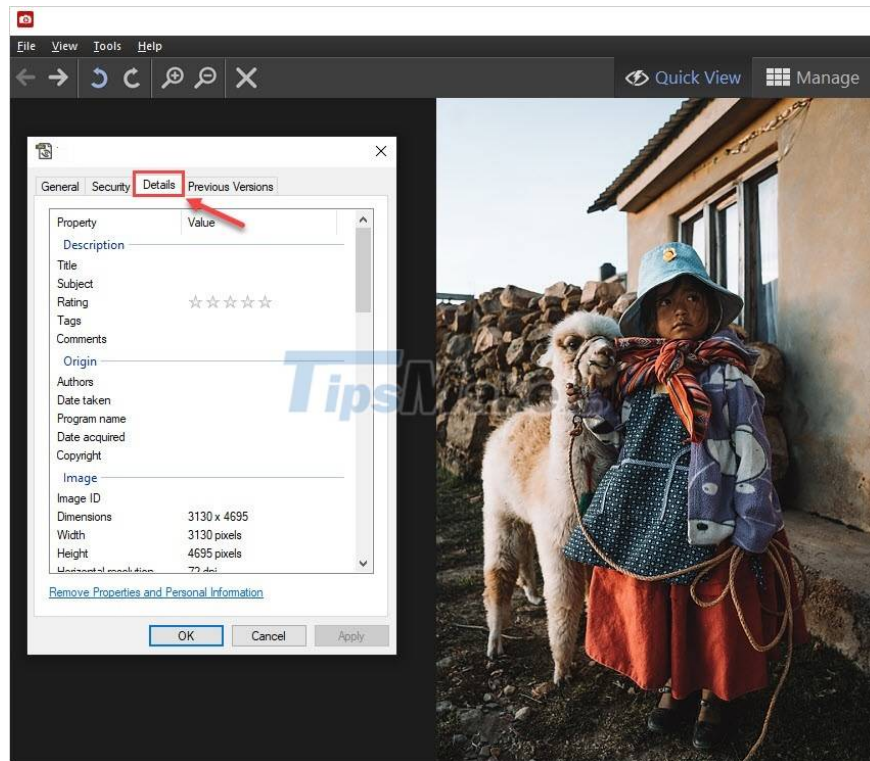

If you need to change or delete this information, please follow the following article.

1. How to edit the Metadata of the image file

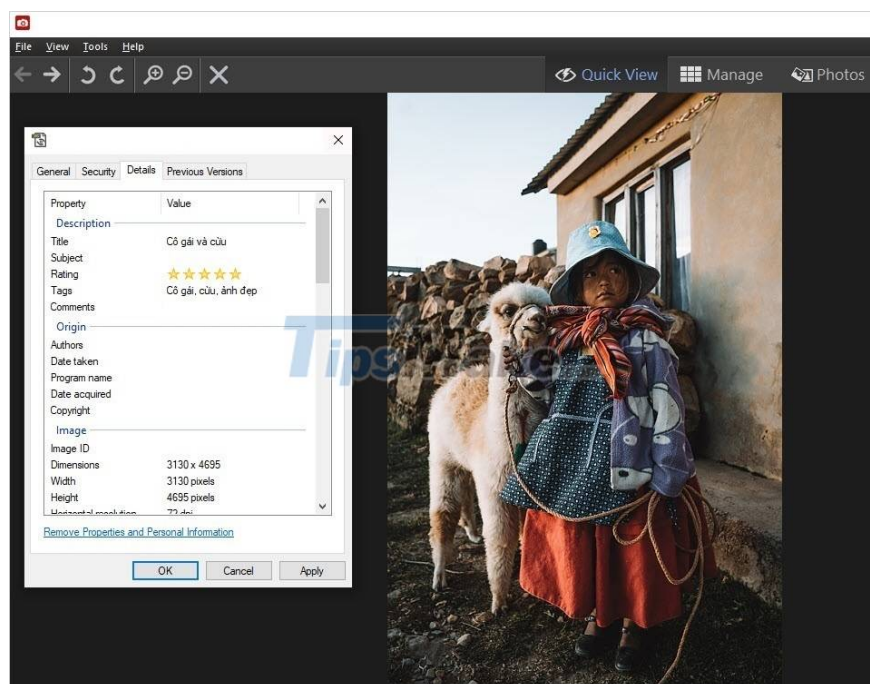

Step 1: Right-click on the image you want to edit Metadata and select Properties.

Step 2: When the Properties window appears, select the Details tab. The Details tab will be the place to display the entire Metadata of the image.

Step 3: To edit the information of the image Metadata, you just need to click on the lines to enter the content or delete the content.

We will have the following specific information:

1. Description – Description of the image

1. Title: Title
2. Subject: Description

3. Rating: Rating
4. Tags: Related keywords
5. Comments: Comments

2. Origin – Image Origin

1. Authors: Authors
2. Date taken: Date taken
3. Program name: Software name
4. Date acquired: Date of publication
5. Copyright: Copyright

3. Image – Image

1. Image ID: Image ID code
2. Dimensions: Resolution
3. Width: Width
4. Height: Height
5. Horizontal resolution: Horizontal resolution
6. Vertical resolution: Vertical resolution
7. Bit depth: Bit rate
8. Compression: Compression format
9. Resolution unit: Resolution unit
10. Color representation: Primary color unit
11. Compressed bits/pixel: Compression density Bits/pixel

4. Camera – Camera information

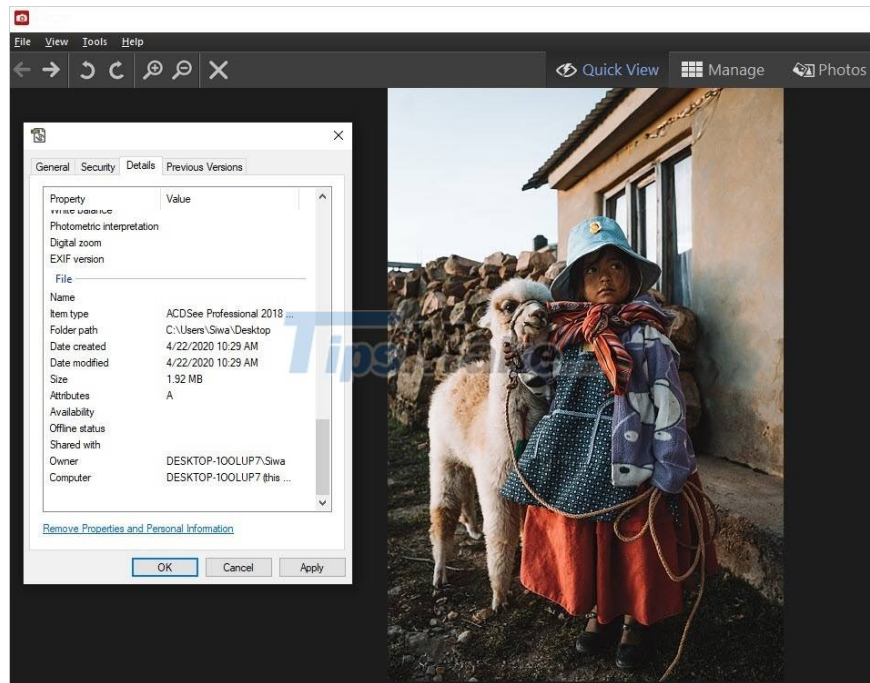

Normally, the images taken with DSLR, specialized cameras, this information will be pre-filled according to the parameters captured by the camera, so we can ignore or delete it as we like.

5. Advanced photo – Advanced image information

This will include information related to creating an image such as: Lens (lens) used, Flash, brightness, contrast .

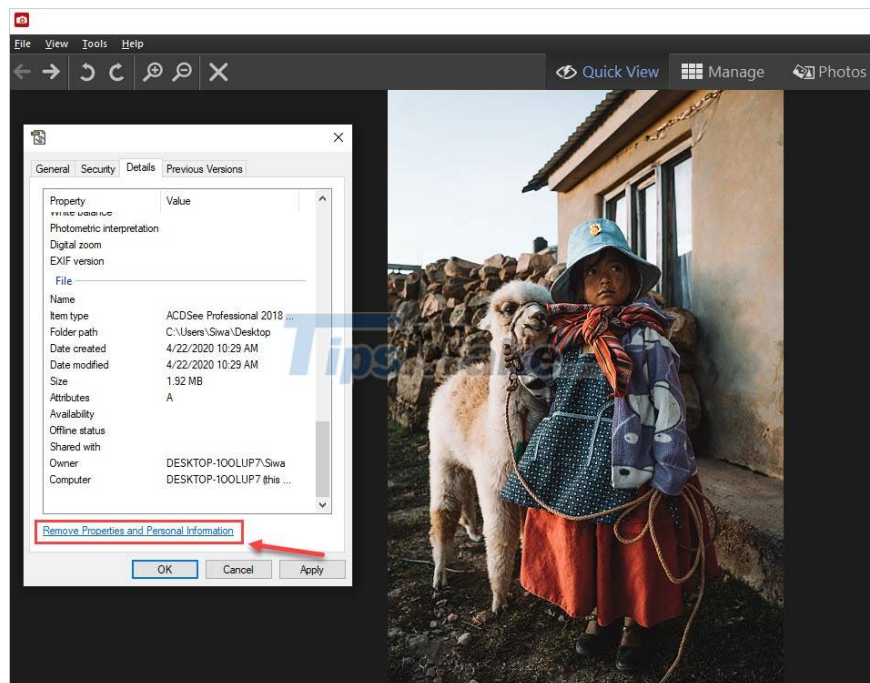

6. File – Data Information

The data information is taken directly on the Windows computer, so you cannot change this information.

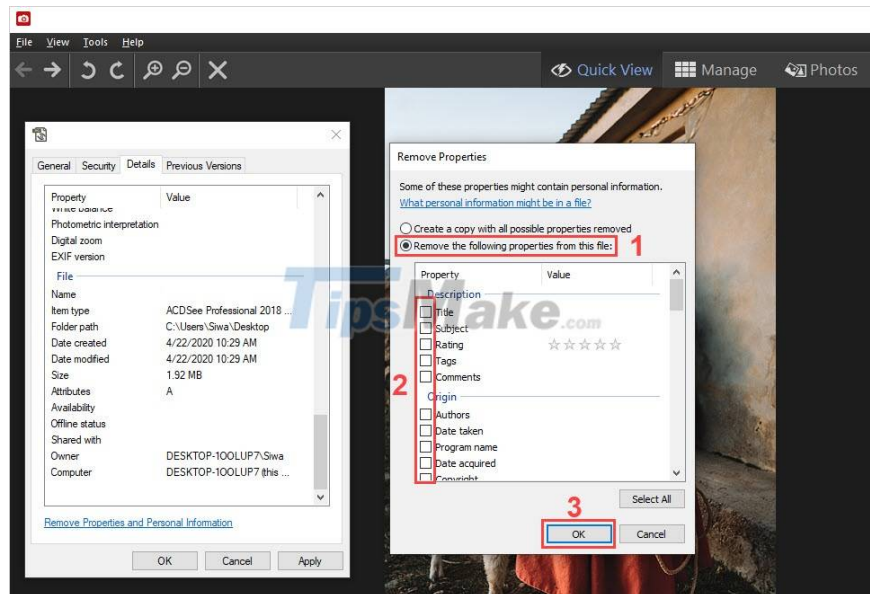

2. How to delete the Metadata of the image file

To delete the Metadata of the image file, select the Remove Properties and Personal Information item.

Next, you select Remove the following properties from this file and proceed to tick the Metadata data items that we want to delete. Finally, click OK and the selected information will be deleted.

In this article, TipsMake has shown you how to edit the Metadata of the image file, change the image information quickly and effectively. Good luck!

You finished reading the article "How to edit the Metadata of the image file, change the image information" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.