

How to enable, disable Flash Player on Google Chrome

How to enable, disable Flash Player on Google Chrome. When you play Flash games on the web or access websites with content requiring flash but there is an error of missing Flash Player even though your computer has Flash Player fully installed, it is most likely your Chrome browser.

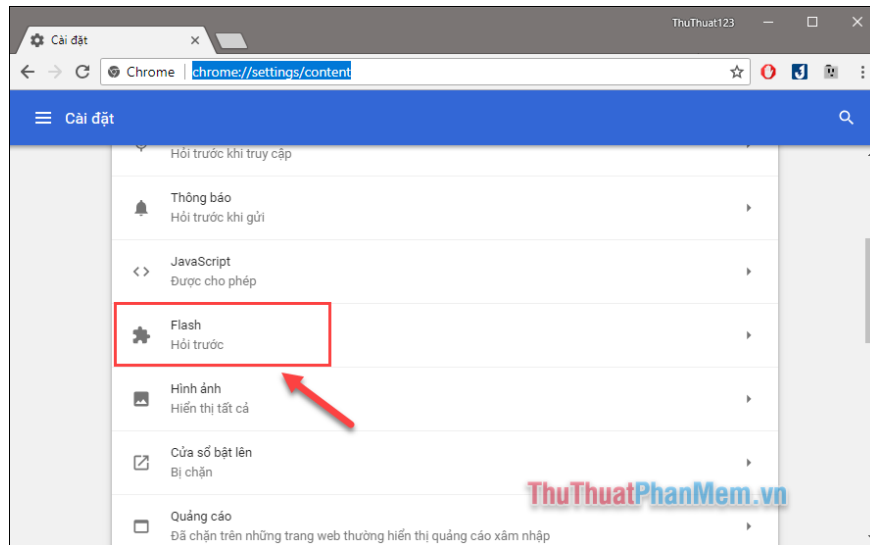

Flash Player is a plugin that helps you play games, watch videos on the browser smoothly. When you play Flash games on the web or visit websites with flash content but the error is missing Flash Player even though your computer has Flash Player fully installed, it is likely that your Chrome browser does not have Flash Player enabled. . So how to enable Flash Player on Chrome browser invite you to follow the following tutorial of TipsMake.com.

Step 1 : Open up Chrome then copy the following link in the address bar and press Enter chrome: // settings / content

Step 2 : A new window will appear, scroll down and select Flash

Step 3 : In the new window you turn on Ask first mode by pressing the switch to green.

To turn off Flash you put the gray button.

So when you play flash games, the site will ask you to click to enable Flash Player

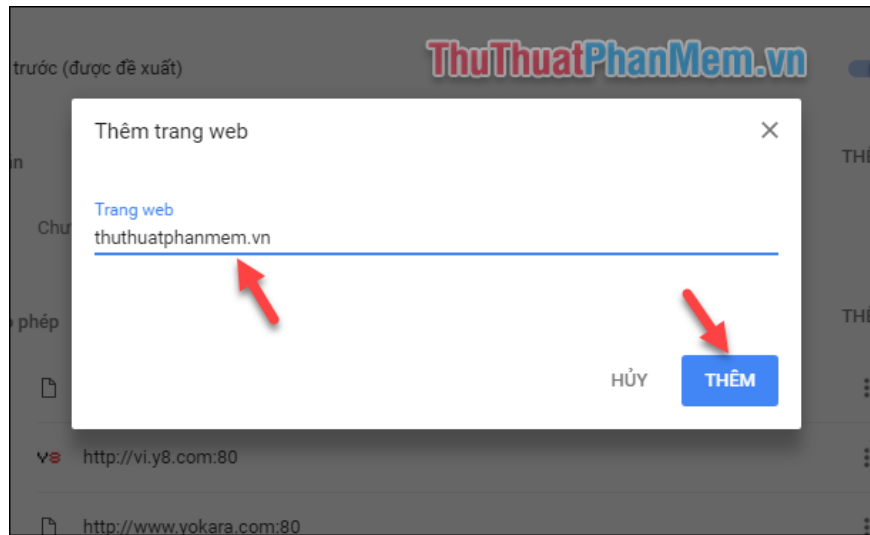

When you click on it, a message will appear asking if you want to enable Flash or not, click Allow .

In addition, you can also add a list of sites that allow Flash enabled and a list of blocking websites from enabling Flash by clicking the ADD button in the corresponding section:

Then you type the website link and click Add is done

So with just a few simple steps, we can enable and disable Flash Player on Chrome browser. Currently most websites have switched to using HTML 5 to support web game play and movement on the website, but there are still a few websites using Flash Player, so turning Flash off is a thing to know when you meet those sites. Thank you for watching this article, wish you success!

You finished reading the article "How to enable, disable Flash Player on Google Chrome" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.